

Independent probe in death of youth

A 17-year-old Bethalto youth alleged to have been driving a stolen auto is dead after an attempt to capture him by two sheriff deputies and an Edwardsville policeman. New Sheriff Emil Toffant is leaving it up to the Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) of the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement to determine whether officers were at fault.

David W. Allison died of gunshot wounds Sunday at a roadblock on Route 159 three miles north of Route 143. Joining in the state investigation request were the Bethalto and Edwardsville police.

Deputies Thomas Hammond and Randall Lamb and Edwardsville Sgt. Charles Glaser said shots were fired in an effort to disable the auto when it was attempting to go around parked patrol cars and Sgt. Glaser slipped and fell. State's Attorney Nicholas Byron said that upon completion of the DCI investigation, his office will review the reports and findings "to determine whether actions of the officers were justified under the law."

Of several shots fired, none were intended for the driver, Major Fred Bright of the sheriff department said. Gary Thurston of Bethalto had reported his car stolen from the Beth-Mor mobile home park at 11:05 p.m. Sunday. John D. Hill of the Bethalto police saw the auto within minutes of the report and chased it on rural roads between Bethalto and Edwardsville at speeds up to 80 miles an hour.

Hill was about two blocks behind when the fleeing car approached the roadblock, set up on the basis of radio messages. All three officers at the scene fired shots after Glaser had fallen after being nearly struck by the vehicle.

The high school junior was a wrestler who had been suspended from athletics this year. Funeral services took place Wednesday.

The student was pronounced dead upon arrival in an ambulance at Wood River Township Hospital.

The site of the roadblock was two and a half miles north of the Edwardsville city limits.

Sheriff Toffant, Edwardsville Police Director Bennett Dickmann and Bethalto Police Chief Louis Dreith all called for an impartial study to determine whether appropriate police procedures were followed.

Several motorists and residents as well as the officers are among the witnesses being questioned.

Illinois law in general limits firing of police weapons to life-or-death situations. A key point is expected to be whether the way in which the auto was being driven endangered one of the officers.

West Pontoon crossing improvement

TEMPORARY REPAIR to the West Pontoon Road rail crossing is underway Tuesday as work crews of Illinois Central Gulf Railroad change crossies south of the street crossing. Also doing temporary repairs is Norfolk and Western and yet to begin is Conrail. The railroads are making the repairs for the winter and are scheduled to do major repairs in the spring next year, including the installation of heavy duty tracks which are welded and have no joints. Only half of the roadway is being obstructed at any time allowing traffic to move at the crossing. In the center background are five storage tanks which contain gasoline, kerosene, fuel oil and lubricating oil which posed a potential danger in the event of a derailment on the adjacent tracks. The repairs now and in the spring will virtually eliminate the possibility.

Industrial park can aid tax base

By HARRY BARNES

Press-Record Staff Writer

Development of a 427-acre tract of land northwest of Granite City is an industrial complex could result in a tax base providing an estimated $6.5 million in tax revenue, a public hearing on a proposal to annex the land to Granite City was told at the city hall here Tuesday night.

Such a potential, which would benefit all taxing agencies in which the tract is located, is nearly five times greater than the projected tax base of the area if it were to be developed as residential property, it was explained by representatives of the Illinois Power Co., owners of the land.

The hearing, attended by approximately 30 persons, including some city officials, was arranged by the city in response to an "annexation agreement" proposed by the utility to clear the way for manufacturing and industrial use of the land acquired by the power company nearly 15 years ago "to assure the availability of land" if and when it was needed for industrial expansion.

Details of the proposed annexation, citing the need of fire and police protection, sewage, drainage and roadway access, were explained as a preliminary to a hearing on the annexation request by the City Plan Commission in a regular meeting scheduled this afternoon. That hearing was to be held in the plan commission offices at the City Building, 2301 Adams St.

Carl Muehlenbach of Tec-Search, Inc. of Wilmette, Ill., a firm retained by the utility to prepare a land use study of the proposed industrial park area, told the hearing that the land tract "in our judgment is an excellent one for development" because of the proximity of the Tri-City Regional Port and Trade Zone, the availability of major high-

Venice schools 'fight for life' Saturday

By VALERIE EVENDEN

Press-Record Staff Writer

Venice voters will go to the polls Saturday to state their choice in the Venice School District's tax referendum to increase the educational fund by 75 cents per $100 assessed valuation and the building fund by 20 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Two polling places will be open from 12 noon until 7 p.m. Saturday.

Precinct One will be located in the Venice High School Gymnasium, 740 Broadway.

Precinct Two will be in the Eagle Park Improvement Association building, 100 Hill St., Eagle Park.

Present maximum rate in the education fund is $2.65 per $100 assessed valuation and 37.5 cents per $100 assessed valuation in the building fund.

The projected increase of 75 cents in the educational rate would bring that rate to $3.40 and the projected raise of 20 cents in the building fund rate would increase that rate to $7.5 cents.

"The Venice School District virtually is fighting for its life with few people wanting to face the alternatives to the tax rate increase. Even that is just a drop in the bucket," one resident commented at last week's public hearing.

In the past three years alone, the Venice School District has lost $11.1 million in assessed valuation.

Declining assessed valuation from $39,591,595 to $20,751,543 in 16 years, the rising costs of operating the schools and failure to pass a needed tax increase of $1.20 in 1973 are among the reasons cited by the board of education for the district's present dilemma.

By the time a 60-cent increase was passed in December 1975, after three previous attempts to get a larger increase failed, the district's assessed valuation plummeted by $2½ million in one year, wiping out most of the increase to be derived from the 60 cent tax hike.

Board members have stated that a total increase of $2.20 in the tax fund

School holidays

Students attending public schools in Venice, Madison and Granite City will begin their Christmas vacation at the close of classes on Friday, Dec. 22, and will return to classes on the regular schedule on Tuesday, Jan. 2.

Quad-city parochial schools will follow different schedules for the holiday season.

St. Margaret Mary will dismiss at the end of all-day sessions on Friday, Dec. 22.

New action against Ricco's II

Ricco's II Lounge, 3675 Namecki Road, was closed last night by order of Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler, acting as the city's liquor control commissioner, and a hearing is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. Monday at which he may revoke or suspend the lounge's license.

Assistant City Attorney Irvin C. Slate Jr. said papers ordering a seven-day suspension and calling the license hearing were served yesterday afternoon on Anthony Augustine, licensee of Ricco's II, as the result of a melee which occurred in the parking lot Monday at 1:30 a.m.

An estimated 50 to 60 persons were involved in a disturbance which required five policemen and four lounge security guards about 40 minutes to quell.

Numerous fights, throwing of beer cans and reckless driving in the parking lot were alleged. Officers and guards also allege they were assaulted with fists by several persons. There were numerous arrests, but participants in the disturbance freed several of their friends from squad cars

'Ridiculous' state lake park slowup

Press-Record Staff Writer

"It seems ridiculous to hear there is one dredge machine in Illinois, a state with a $12 billion budget," State Sen. Sam Vadalabene (D-Edwardsville) said Monday afternoon in pledging he will attempt to have money appropriated for a machine to dredge the bottom of Horseshoe Lake.

Vadalabene's comments came during an open meeting of the Chamber of Commerce's Horseshoe Lake State Park Commission, attended by U.S. Congressman Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis), State Rep. Everett Steele (R-Glen Carbon), officials of the Illinois Department of Conservation and Environmental Protection Agency and of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, and about 40 other local officials and interested citizens.

Experts and planners from the Department of Conservation agreed that the basic problem with the lake, and with its development, is that it is too shallow. The lake has filled with silt to where it averages only about one foot in depth, at times.

Vadalabene said that talk about what will be done in the future to improve the lake is "soup warmed over" since such talk has been going on for 40 years and there has been little progress in that time.

He asked what a dredge large enough to do the job would cost. An estimate of $400,000 was agreed upon by Department of Conservation and Corps of Engineers representatives. The department owns one "200,000 mud-eat" which is permanently assigned to another park.

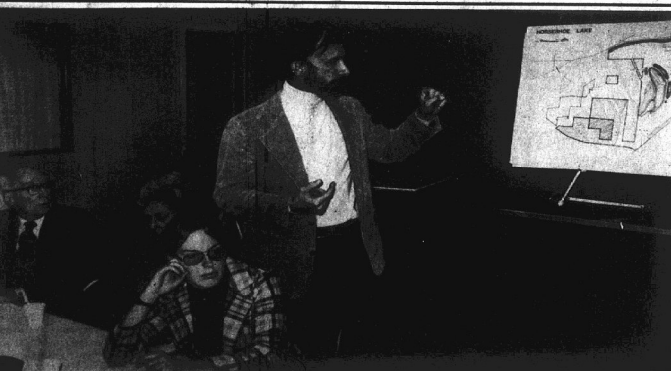

The senator then asked, "If I handle a

Pet adoptions Saturday

The Association for the Protection of Animals (APA) this year is suggesting that pets not be given as gifts on Christmas morning.

The APA will hold an adoption clinic Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at 2851 Washington Ave.

In past years, the APA has offered to keep animals adopted at the December clinic until Christmas Eve and deliver them to their new homes that day.

It has been pointed out by the Humane Society of the United States, however, that placing a pet, whether young or older, in a new home on Christmas Day is not a good idea, an APA spokesman said.

"This year we are suggesting that pets not be given as presents on Christmas morning, but be presented to their new owners at an earlier time," the APA officer stated.

"Pets can easily become upset or sick when introduced to a new home in the rush of activities on Christmas Day."

"Small animals can get hurt by placing ribbons and bows around the neck. Tinsel on the Christmas tree always attracts kittens which will become ill if the tinsel is chewed and swallowed. People sometimes neglect the new pet because of visiting relatives and friends on Christmas Day, or drag the animal around from house to house, an equally upsetting experience.

"We advise those wishing to give a pet as a gift to acquire the animal at an earlier date, allowing it to become familiar with its new surroundings before the holidays."

The APA will have available for adoption Saturday:

Three 10-week-old fluffy white kittens; a male part-terrier, one-year-old; a part Labrador female puppy, 6 weeks old.

Two 5-week-old part German Shepherd female puppies; a 2½-month-old male pup with curly hair; a 6-month-old half poodle, used to the outdoors; and a 2-year-old female part German Shepherd.

The APA is a non-profit humane group supported by volunteers and private donations.

Croatian League Christmas party

The Croatian Fraternal Union Lodge 222 Madison Ladies Bowling League held its annual Christmas party at Roustio's Restaurant in Collinsville during the weekend.

The private room was decorated in a traditional theme, and Christmas arrangement favors made with English walnuts were given to all guests for their trees.

The centerpiece consisted of bowling pins decorated with Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus. Recipients were Mrs. Eva Maurer and Mrs. Antonia Layloff.

A cocktail party preceded the dinner, which was served to 33 ladies. A gift exchange followed.

The remainder of the evening was spent playing games, with special prizes won by Stephanie Ruzic and Elizabeth Skubish.

Christmas carols were sung to the accompaniment of the restaurant's organist.

The hostesses for the evening were the league's officers, who made the prizes and furnished games and candy.

The following attended: Mary Yoboy, Winnie Sasyk, Adele Wasylak, Elizabeth Skubish, Jackie Starr, Vickie Meyer, Stephanie Ruzic, Joan Karwaski.

Stephanie Rydgig, Rose Vest, Rosemary Moran, Sharon O'Beir, Mary Ann Petrunich, Debbie Topal.

Listed in high school Who's Who

Gregory Brooks Holder, son of Dr. and Mrs. Brooks Holder of Creve Coeur, Mo., former residents of Granite City and Troy, has been listed in the national publication of "Who's Who in American High Schools."

The inclusion is based upon academic, social and religious activities and achievements.

The youth, a senior at Parkway Central High School Creve Coeur, is planning toward a career in medicine. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Myers of Granite City, formerly of Troy.

Madison to seek hearing on railroad crossings

Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison announced Tuesday night at the Madison City Council meeting that Casper S. Highhossian, city attorney, is preparing to file a petition requesting the Illinois Commerce Commission to hold a public hearing in Madison concerning the condition of various railroad crossings. "I have contacted the railroad numerous times and have even offered assistance by our city employees to fix these crossings. We have been waiting now for a year and a half and little has been done," Sasyk said.

The tracks run between 13th and 14th streets and have crossings at State Street, Grand Avenue, Madison Avenue, Iowa Street and Washington Avenue.

The crossings are felt to be in a dangerous condition by council members who have received numerous complaints about them. Casimir Krakowiacki, director of Madison Civil Defense, told the council the new siren has been tested and checked out well. He further complimented Mike Maczek for "the fine job he did in installing the siren."

Rites held for Mrs. Griffin

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 13, at a Madison funeral home for Mrs. Dolores Marie (Zeigler) Griffin, 56, of 4102 Krikpatrick Homes. She died at 12:10 a.m. Monday, Dec. 11, at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Survivors include her husband, Fred J. Griffin; three sons, Fred B. Griffin, Bellevue, Mo., Melvin R. Griffin, Albright, W. Va., and Joey W. Griffin, Granite City; three daughters, Mrs. Charles (Katherine) Ellsworth, Granite City, Mrs. Joe (Doris) Velley, Bellevue, Mo., and Mrs. Ted (Theresa) Crawford, Ironton, Mo.; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Zeigler, Venice; and four brothers, Carl Zeigler, Lincoln, Ill., Wesley Zeigler Jr., and Donald Zeigler, both of Granite City, and Robert Zeigler of Venice; five sisters, Mrs. Elmer (Marcella) Taylor, Mrs. Bob (Beverly) Dagan and Mrs. Venetta Leinkuehl, all of Granite City, Mrs. Sandy Brewer, Tipp City, Ohio, and Mrs. Violet Diefenbach of Springfield, Ill.; and 17 grandchildren. Burial was in St. John Cemetery, 2901 Nameoki Road.

Senior Citizens ball Wednesday

A Christmas ball for senior citizens living in Granite City Township planned for 7 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 20, at the township center, 2060 Delmar Ave., was the topic of discussion at a monthly meeting of the Granite City Senior Citizen Council. The group met at the township hall Monday with President Ruby Corbitt presiding.

She added music for dancing will be presented by Paul Sabo Band arranged through the American Federation of Musicians Local 717. There is also a container at the hall for donations of can foods and non-perishable items which will be delivered to needy seniors in time for Christmas. Mrs. Corbitt noted. Other announcements included a drivers training class set for 9 a.m. on Wednesday and Thursday, Dec. 20-21, at the center. The township hall will be closed on Dec. 25-26 for the holiday season, Mrs. Corbitt announced.

LEADERS

Heavy smoke and fire damage was done Sunday afternoon to the Leaders Department Store, 3705 Nameoki Road.

Firemen responded with three fire companies at 1:05 p.m. and were at the scene for nearly four hours.

The fire is believed to have started in a rear storage area and spread to an upper level balcony.

Cause and amount of damage is unknown.

A spokesman for the fire department said there was heavy smoke and fire damage to the contents of the building. One fireman received a slight burn on an arm, but did not require hospital treatment.

A fire department spokesman said this is the second fire in the same area within a week.

The building is owned by Henry Ross. Irwin Strauss is president of the Leader Department stores.

ELEMENTARY CHORUS of students from Granite City elementary schools give a Christmas concert Tuesday night at Memorial Auditorium.

YOUNG SOLOIST, Adam Schneider, 11, of Frohardt School, sang "What Child is This?" during Tuesday night's Christmas concert of the 83-member Granite City Elementary Chorus.

Elementary chorus has yule program

The Granite City Elementary Chorus presented its Christmas program Tuesday evening at Memorial Auditorium at Granite City High School South.

The 83-member chorus presented traditional Christmas songs, including "Away in a Manger," "Joy to the World" and "Santa Claus is Coming to Town," as well as newer seasonal songs, including "Seventy-seven Santas."

Adam Schneider sang a solo of "What Child is This?" and Jan Morgan accompanied the chorus on the flute for "Let the Bright Star Shine."

Directors were Mrs. Patricia Michaeloff and Miss Deborah Milton.

Bolinda Abernathy, Greg Ambuehl, Jimmy Andrews, Tina Barunica, Paula Bills, Karen Black, Beth Bodnam, Cherrie Bosworth, Holly Braundmeier, Linda Briner, Dawn Broska, Angie Bugg, Michelle Burlison, Richard Cain, Tricia Craig, Tracy Crawford, Ken Dauer, Stephanie Dill, Janice Dodd and Tammy Dunbar.

Kelly Evans, Kim Evans, Christine Finkle, Stacie Foreman, Karrie Frazier, Cheryl French, Serena Futrell, Michelle Gallas, Christine Gasparovic and Lisa Green.

Arrest youths

Three youths were arrested during a disturbance in the 2800 block of Buxton Avenue at 10:25 a.m. Tuesday.

Officers first were told youths were breaking into a garage at the rear of 2822 Buxton Ave., and as a police car arrived on the scene, two youths ran from the garage and were chased on foot. The youths, ages 16 and 14 were caught nearby.

After one youth was placed in a squad car and the other was in custody, a 17-year-old allegedly ran to the squad car and reached for the rear door handle, as though to release the prisoner from the car.

An officer informed him he was under arrest and the 17-year-old allegedly said, "You're not arresting me," and started to run. The officer grabbed him and had to wrestle with him before getting him over the trunk of the squad car. Another officer assisted in handcuffing the youth, who received a small cut to his head in the scuffle.

He then allegedly threatened police and tried to kick a window in the squad car. Raymond Alan Reeves, 17, of 2811 Buxton Ave., was charged with resisting arrest and disorderly conduct and the juveniles were referred to juvenile authorities.

Officers checked the garage, which belongs to John Sobol Realty, and discovered a door had been broken from its hinges.

Gold Watches Are For The Birds

Retire Rich With A Tax Sheltered Nest Egg

That gold watch they'll give you when you retire will give you time on your hands... and not much more. Build the retirement security you'll need with a tax deferred IRA or KEOGH account from Granite City Trust.

If you're not covered at work... Put away up to $1500 or up to 15% of your yearly gross income (whichever is less) in a tax sheltered retirement fund.

If you're self-employed... Put away up to $2500 or up to 15% of your yearly net income (whichever is less) in a tax sheltered retirement fund.

Either way, the amount you add each year is tax free. And the high interest we add (up to 6.00%) is tax free, too. You will pay taxes on the money you withdraw, but you'll probably be retired and in a lower tax bracket then.

1978 Contribution may be made up to the date your 1978 Income Tax return is due in 1979.

Gain career knowledge

Students asked questions of various career representatives during Career Awareness Days held recently at both Granite City High Schools.

The students received career information at the separate three-hour programs, co-sponsored by the High School Guidance Departments and the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club. Mrs. Janet Davinroy, Young Careerist chairman for the local club, coordinated the program with Mrs. June Mills, career committee at Granite City High School North and Mrs. Sondra Kopsky at South High School.

Career Awareness Days enabled young people to discuss qualifications needed in a variety of career areas and to receive practical information about job opportunities, salary expectations and the availability of continuing educational programs while working in the respective fields.

Accountant — Dave Heth; Illinois Bell — Paul Severian; Home Economics — Jo Meyer; Dental Hygienist — Dr. Jack Miller; Cosmetologist — Julie Ahring; Nursing — Genia Forshee.

Laboratory Technologist — Rhonda McDowell; Law Enforcement — Fred Hoffman; Lawyer — Tom Hildebrand; Recreation — Don Rains; Trucking — Bob Maxey.

Industrial — Dick Seiler; Fireman — George Smolich; Pharmacist — Darwin Siegel; Travel-Tourism — Don Watson; City Government — Robert Stevens; Engineers — Monroe Brewer.

Day Care — Inis Gann; Insurance Sales — Billy H. Terrell; Real Estate Sales — Jim Whitt; Retail Sales — Wayne Scannell; Construction and Building Trades — Gene McGovern.

Court Reporter — Tana Stamps; Social Worker — John Nielsen; U.S. Army — Sergeant Baker and Staff Sergeant Bramley; U.S. Air Force — Sergeant Dennis Daigle; U.S. Marine Corps — Sergeant Streiff; and U.S. Navy — Carl Titz.

Granite 650 fetes retiring officers

The first meeting of the newly installed officers of Granite Chapter 650, Order of the Eastern Star, headed by Mrs. Donna Kagy as worthy matron and Joseph Bilbrey, worthy patron, was held during the weekend at the Masonic Temple.

Honor guests for the evening were Dorothy Watkins, junior past worthy matron and Bill Watkins, junior past patron. They were presented with a corsage and boutonniere as a poem entitled "A Favorite Recipe" was read by Mrs. Watkins followed by a member reciting the poem "Favors" to her husband. Lois Ann Bilbrey then sang "My Cup Runneth Over" to both of the guests and a lantern gift was given to the retiring officers.

Introduced were grand-ducatrices Mary Bilbrey, Hazel Wood, Betty McClintock and Arline Fox and board members and grand chapter committee members.

A Christmas greeting was read from the Worthy Grand Matron of Illinois Evelyn L. Ross.

The proposed calendar and all committees were appointed by Mrs. Kagy who added the calendar advertisements and names are to be turned in no later than Dec. 22.

She added the chapter Christmas party is set for 7:30 p.m. Dec. 22 and there will be a $1 gift exchange. Entertainment will include a program of holiday music provided by Lois Ann Bilbrey.

During the meeting a memorial service was conducted for the late Mrs. Eva Shearer who was a past matron of the chapter.

Pro tem officers for the evening were Rachel Larsen, Chaplain; Dorothy Brokaw, Marshall; Mary Ellen Lewis, warder; and Betty McClintock, Ruth.

Mrs. Watkins presented Mrs. Kagy with a gift and Bill Watkins gave special gift to Joseph Bilbrey, extending well wishes to the new officers for the forthcoming year.

Committees for the evening were Lloyd Lewis, Mrs. McClintock, Betty Ebrecht, Bonnie Fisher, Mary Hoover and Bertha Frith.

The dining room was decorated with gingerbread boys and girls in rings holding hands as centerpieces and each member received a small stuffed gingerbread Christmas tree ornament as a favor.

Decorations were in keeping with the theme "I Can I Can" and a large gingerbread house centered the main table.

PRISON WORK WILL CONTINUE IN STATE

Governor James R. Thompson has ordered construction of a new medium security prison at Centralia to continue as planned. In September, he agreed to reconsider the prison location at the request of a group which opposed it. The governor ordered continued construction because a delay would "seriously hamper the state's plans to handle the ever-increasing prison population. It is not logical to wait any longer," he said.

DISCOVER BURGLARY Stereo equipment valued at about $350 was stolen during a burglary early this week at the home of Oshail Warren, 2719 Whipoorwill Lane. A window was broken to gain entry.

Truck parking is opposed

The Madison Zoning and Planning Commission took under advisement Tuesday evening the request for a special use permit to allow truck parking on the southeast corner of 10th and State streets in Madison, which is zoned residential.

Lee Fackler, owner of the property, operates a truck stop on the northeast corner of 10th and State streets which was not affected by the zoning law as the business was operating prior to adoption of the zoning ordinance.

Residents whose properties are across the alley from the 136-foot lot, with the exception of the tavern owner, raised questions of the noise of trucks, dust problems and decreasing property values.

One resident who is 75, said he does not have air conditioning and the noise keeps him awake at night, as the trucks allegedly did when they parked on the lot for a time until Fackler was notified that trucks could not park there until a special use permit was obtained.

The tavern owner said that she had three renters living over the tavern and they did not complain about the trucks.

She further said that she was in favor of allowing the trucks to park on the lot in question because it was good for the tavern business.

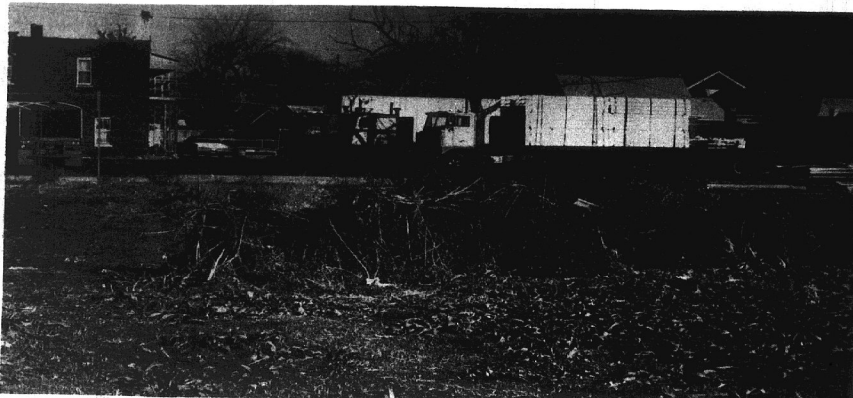

Fackler said he intended to fix up the property but it will take him two years because of the cost involved.

A member of the zoning board suggested Fackler study the provisions of the ordinance carefully.

A question was raised by a zoning board member that the area might be too small for trucks to maneuver without damaging the side street curbs and traffic control signs. How much revenue the trucks actually brought to Madison was also questioned by the zoning board.

Testimony in favor of the truck lot was allowed by two persons who live across the street near the present truck lot.

The City Council concurred with the zoning board's recommendation to take the matter under further advisement.

CONTROVERSIAL AREA at 10th and State streets is the object of concern by property owners whose back yards are across the alley. The owner of the property, who operates the truck stop visible in background, is requesting a special use permit in the residential area to park trucks in this empty lot. Objections by neighbors have been made. The matter is under advisement by the Madison zoning board. (Press-Record Photo)

New road cost rise is fought

Following Secretary of Transportation Brock Adams' announcement of an anti-inflation fight against escalating highway construction costs, Federal Highway Administrator Karl S. Bowers has called in state officials and leaders of the highway construction industry to discuss efforts to slow down the rate of cost increases.

Bowers explained to the state government and industry representatives the Federal Highway Administration's current plans and efforts, and asked for their advice and support.

He told the group the latest FHWA figures show that highway construction costs during the third quarter of 1978 rose 14.7 percent over the previous three months.

"We don't believe that inflation is responsible for all of the price increases," Bowers said. "And we intend to redouble our efforts to reduce the many kinds of costs that can't be blamed on inflation."

Bowers said the group assured him of strong approval and support, and also contributed substantive suggestions of ways FHWA can wage its cost-cutting campaign.

Two of these suggestions have been incorporated in the FHWA effort.

Bowers has established new policies which will permit little or no retention of contractor progress payments if construction work is proceeding on schedule.

He acted on the second suggestion by adopting new policies that will further encourage contractor organizations and labor unions to follow the president's voluntary wage-price guidelines when negotiating their new agreements.

These latest elements augment the cost-cutting campaign announced by Adams. Highlights of the overall plan are:

—Policies to encourage quick progress payments to contractors and pay for materials stockpiled both on and off construction sites, reducing contractors' needs to borrow.

—Granting more realistic time extensions when temporary material shortages occur at no fault of the contractor.

Contract incentive clauses where appropriate to take advantage of contractor initiative and innovations to reduce costs.

—Encouraging states to incorporate voluntary wage-price guidelines into their highway construction programs.

—Limits to size and duration of contracts where possible, to allow completion of a project within one construction season by "staging" or "phasing" large projects or by letting smaller projects.

—Increasing the use of alternate designs to provide more flexibility to contractors and ensure that the lowest cost method is used for construction.

—Scheduling of advertising periods and project lettings to attract the most competition available.

"In view of the fact that contractors sometimes have difficulty in obtaining long-term quotes for materials and supplies, we are asking our FHWA field office people to consider including price adjustment or actual-cost provisions in new large contracts whenever they think this might be a problem," said Bowers.

"We're also asking them to take a close look at any potential cost benefits that might be derived from the use of recycled materials."

"Beyond this," Bowers concluded, "we will continue to look for new and better ways to battle the cost escalation problem in highway construction, and we will welcome the suggestions of everyone involved in the highway industry."

MARIJUANA ARRESTS

Three youths, ages 14, 15 and 16, were arrested last week after police stopped their car at Fehling Road and State Street shortly after school began and alleged finding marijuana in the car. One boy allegedly damaged a white plastic dish of marijuana down the front seat and another allegedly threw a plastic bag of marijuana on the ground and kicked it under a car. Five marijuana cigarettes were found in the boys' clothing, officers added.

New auto license deadline Feb. 28

Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon this week extended the deadline for display of the new, multi-year Illinois license plates to midnight February 28.

"This will be the only extension granted, obviously," Secretary Dixon said, "because that is the absolute limit we are allowed by Illinois law."

Secretaries of state traditionally have granted license display extensions because the calendar-year expiration date of Dec. 31 gets, mixed in with the holidays and cause an economic hardship on Illinois motorists.

But the deadlines usually are extended piecemeal, two weeks or a month at a time. Dixon decided to "go the limit" with this extension to allow financial institutions and state facilities selling license plates over the counter to plan their work.

This is the last time a calendar-year deadline will be extended because the new, multi-year, staggered registration license program installed by Sec. Dixon henceforth will have registrations expiring over nine months of the year, March through November.

"There can be no extensions granted from now on because we will be dealing with a new batch of automobile owners each month," Dixon said.

"The workload will be spread over the nine months and we can foresee a smooth-flowing operation."

"I have extended the deadline to the limit the law allows because I see the Illinois motorist getting concerned about being able to display the new license plates by midnight Dec. 31.

"It is true that the larger number of special requests, prompted by motorists knowledge that this plate is going to be on the car at least five years, has added to the workload in Springfield. This put us slightly behind in plate mailings in November and early December."

"However, we are catching up," Dixon said. "For instance, as of Monday we had mailed 1,016,754 sets of plates compared to 1,124,741 at this same time last year."

"Post office personnel have cooperated marvelously in handling this massive plate mailing for the people of Illinois," Dixon said.

"That little sticker—blue on the left, red on the right of the rear plate—also is causing some problems. 'It added days to our plate preparation workload and when received by the motorist has caused slight confusion. This deadline extension will allow motorists who might have mislaid their stickers to reapply and receive them before Feb. 28."

"Once these startup problems are resolved and our 6.3 million Illinois automobile owners have received their plates and stickers, we'll all be happier," Dixon said.

"There will be no more long lines for new plates, and there will be no frozen-finger fumbling to put plates on in the dead of winter."

"And the most important thing to keep in mind is that at the end of the first five years, there will be $21 million saved in costs of distributing these old annual license plates."

STUDENT CHOSEN FOR THE LINCOLN AWARD
Miss Shawn Kay Grandia, Godfrey, is a recipient of the Lincoln Academy of Illinois Educational Achievement Award. A senior at SIUE majoring in physics, she was awarded the Order of Lincoln Medal and $100 cash in special ceremonies in the House of Representatives at the state capitol in Springfield during the weekend.

The academy presents its awards in the name of Abraham Lincoln to outstanding seniors at state colleges and universities, chosen not for grades alone but for educational achievement in the broadest sense. Miss Grandia, a Dean's College scholar with a grade point average of 4.58 (A equals 5.0), she has applied for medical school following graduation from SIUE and hopes to obtain an M.D.-Ph.D. degree.

Social security cards needed for driver education

Granite City High School South freshmen and sophomores who are planning to take driver's education either this school year or next will need a social security number, according to the guidance department.

Students needing a social security card may pick up an application in the guidance office. A representative of the social security office will be at South to review applications on Thursday, Jan.

4, during the lunch study periods.

Students must provide proof of identity such as an original birth certificate, or a certified copy of birth of baptismal certificate, student identification or library card or a document which shows either the student's signature or photograph. The documents with the completed application should be taken to the guidance office on Jan. 4. The documents will be returned to the student, according to a school spokesman.

Luke 24:49... "And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? Know ye not that I must be about my Father's business?"

When Christ was age twelve, he went with his parents to Jerusalem after the feast days were past. Mary and Joseph started home. Without them knowing it, Christ remained behind. After they discovered he was missing, they immediately returned to seek for him. After three days, they found him in the temple, in the midst of Doctors and Teachers of the law.

All who heard him speak, even at age twelve, were astonished and amazed. This was the result of him being with God before he was born in Bethlehem. He possessed the eternal wisdom and knowledge of his Heavenly Father.

When Mary and Joseph expressed concern over his actions, he replied, "I must be about my Father's business." That business, of course, is the salvation of mankind. He is still working at it. Praise God!

Will you accept His salvation? Today?

Letters bring fast response

Letters written by Nameoki Township Supervisor Harold Davis to state and federal legislators seeking improved roads and drainage have stirred a flurry of return mail, the Nameoki Town Board of Trustees learned Monday night.

During the board's regular meeting, a total of nine letters from legislators and from officials of the Illinois Department of Transportation and the U.S. Corps of Engineers were read, all promising due consideration of Davis' requests.

Davis had sought improved drainage, a speedup of the Illinois Drainage planning, the need for traffic signals and controls at some locations, dangerous truck traffic through the township and the need for an overpass on Route 162 near Maryville Road.

Letters of response were read from U.S. Senators Charles Percy (three letters) and Adlai Stevenson III, U.S. Congressman Melvin Price, Illinois State Sen. Sam Vadala and State Rep. Sam Wolf. Letters also were received from the Department of Transportation and the U.S. Corps of Engineers, Davis said.

"I don't know if it will do any good, but at least they are studying my requests and there has been some communications lines opened," Davis told the Press-Record Tuesday. He was unable to attend Monday evening's town board meeting.

The trustees told Cloverleaf Subdivision residents in the audience that only an agreement with the city of Madison is prohibiting the installation of a new water main to that subdivision, which will allow fire hydrants to be installed. The township will finance the new water line with federal grant funds, but rules require that a city or chartered group lease the hydrants. Madison was asked to lease the hydrants with funds supplied by the township, but the agreement was referred to a city council committee and has not been voted upon, the trustees reported.

All other arrangements have been made, they said. The board agreed to hold its next meeting on Wednesday, Dec. 27, since the date for the regular meeting would fall on Christmas day. It will begin at 7 p.m. in the town hall, 4250 Highway 102.

Along with this, he said, is the advantage of being in a community. "Most industrial firms want to be near a growing community because of the labor supply, the availability of raw materials and because the market is there," he noted.

"I doubt if many of you realize the potential of business and industrial activity offered by your regional port. If we were to gather here ten years from now, we would be surprised at the expansion of the port. You are just beginning to break the surface of the potential of this facility," Muehlenbach said.

City is southwest of old Highway 66 and Route Three, has a link on the north to former Highway 66 (Chain of Rocks Road) and is connected on the south with the city boundary line. It is east of the Chain of Rocks Canal and immediately west of Highway 73.

Carl Mathias, area service manager of the Granite City district of Illinois Power, told the meeting that development of the industrial area is in no way linked with reports that a firm "have looked at 35 or 40 possible sites and I imagine all of them think their site will be chosen."

Muehlenbach, who projected the 427-acre tract when developed would provide about 3,000 jobs, told the meeting he did not believe the tract would be sufficient for a Datsun plant without acquiring additional land.

He noted that the Datsun plant would require a construction investment of at least $35 million.

Mathias said the land was acquired by Illinois Power about 14 years ago "with a view toward the time when a sizeable tract of land for manufacturing purposes would be needed for development by expanding industry."

"During the last three years the number of inquiries for a large tract for industrial use has increased to the point where we decided that it was time to get the site ready. At this time we have no specific projects in mind, but you can be assured industry will come to the area," Mathias said.

Dual-phase steel

National Steel Corporation announced today that it is planning to enter the dual-phase steel market in the near future in response to an emerging product need for the automotive industry.

The announcement was made by D. Dan Hedrick, vice president-automotive sales, who said the corporation presently is targeting mid-1979 for bringing on stream a production unit for dual-phase steel at its Weirton (W. Va.) Steel Division. The division has been producing steels for critical automotive applications for some time. The production unit will involve use of an existing continuous galvanizing line, which will be specially equipped to process hot-rolled, cold-rolled and galvanized dual-phase products.

Production of the new National Steel product is expected to coincide with the 1980 model year. Dual-phase steel is a formable sheet product which develops high-strength levels when formed, resulting in thin, lightweight parts for a variety of automotive applications.

"This unit," says Hatke, "will tend to serve our customers' developmental and initial production needs. It will also give us insight into determining what kind of production capacity will be required by National Steel to serve this market's material needs into the 1980s."

"We believe National Steel will have the industry's most versatile dual-phase production capability and thereby demonstrate our continued commitment to serving the material needs of this major flat-rolled product market."

while officers were breaking up other fights.

Six youths, all from Missouri, were jailed after the disturbance and have been released on bond.

Slate said two hearings are scheduled Monday. The first is an optional hearing which Augustine may waive at which it is to be determined whether the seven-day suspension is warranted. Immediately after that hearing will be another to determine "the status of the liquor license." Schuler's options include suspending the license for a given period of time or revoking it.

Last week, Schuler notified the license holders of Ricco's and of the Upper Level Lounge, 19th and State streets, that their licenses will not be renewed when they expire this spring, due to numerous disturbances, fights and scuffles with police.

Any action taken by Schuler on the license is subject to appeal to the state Liquor License Commissioner, who can modify or overturn any order.

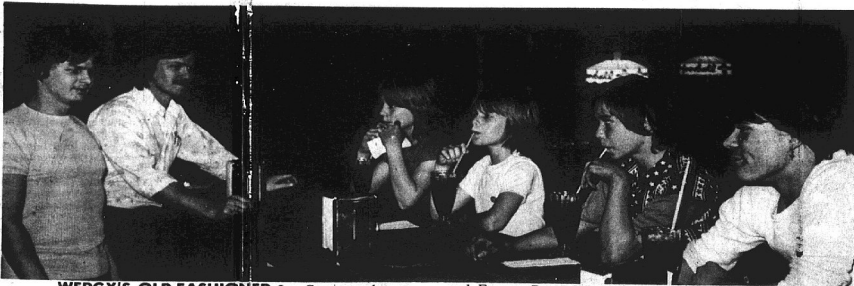

If either side then disagrees with the state's commissioner's final order, it can be appealed to the courts.

$5,500 fire at American Steel

Firefighters were at American Steel Foundries for two hours and 45 minutes Tuesday when a propane gas tank leaked on a forklift and caused a fire at 8:30 p.m. The leaking gas apparently came in contact with a space heater and ignited other combustible materials inside a building at the plant. Estimated loss was $4,000 to contents and $1,500 to the building.

The Carter administration on Wednesday tightened the "profit margin test" by placing a ceiling of companies' dollar profit increase. It said wage and benefit rises can average up to 7.2 percent.

To seek extension of sewers

The Madison County Special Sewer Committee, which is the governing body for construction of new sanitary sewers in Chouteau, Nameoki and Venice townships, agreed last night to do everything possible to see that sewer service is extended to parts of Blue Spruce Court and Rita Court, both near Morrison Road. About 30 residents of those streets attended last night's regular meeting of the sewer committee at the Chouteau Town Hall to object to the sewer plan, which calls for them to pay sewer taxes, but does not provide them with sewers.

Youth in ICU after 34,000 volt shock

David Daniels, 18, of 518 Main St., Venice, was in serious condition in the intensive care unit of St. Elizabeth Hospital today after he suffered an electrical shock from a 34,000-volt power line in Venice at 3:20 p.m. Wednesday.

Police said Daniels apparently fell approximately 80 feet from a tower carrying high voltage lines on the Venice riverfront levee. Greg Brawley, 19, of 718 Brown St., Venice, was admitted to the hospital for treatment of mental shock suffered when he saw his friend fall from the tower. He walked out of the hospital later, authorities.

News notes

Contracts totaling $5,302,235 for construction projects on the $360 million link in Interstate 270 have been awarded. The completed route is scheduled to be open to traffic in 1983.

Pressmen are voting today on a tentative agreement with the Post-Dispatch. Paper handlers have joined dockhands in picketing at the still-closed newspaper.

Office furniture purchased for $3,985 to furnish the office of Chief Circuit Judge Moses Harrison could have been bought for $1,984, Dan Partney of the Madison County Board's Central Services Committee said yesterday. Bidding is required for more than $1,000, and four vouchers were issued to stay under this amount, Partney said in reporting that payment won't be authorized.

About 35 demonstrators dumped tea and corn on a table in an outer office of Governor James R. Thompson on Tuesday as a protest to state government salary hikes.

Chicago aldermen are "meeting" federal pay guidelines by averaging their big raises with lesser amounts given to city department heads.

Illinois students doing well in scholastic achievement

Illinois students continue to score well on tests of achievement as compared to students in the rest of the nation, State Superintendent of Education Joseph M. Cronin says in a preliminary report on achievement trends to be presented to the State Board today.

According to Dr. Cronin, over the last nine years, students in Illinois have scored consistently higher than the rest of the nation on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) and slightly higher than or very close to the rest of the nation on the American College Test (ACT).

The SAT and ACT are the two major tests of achievement taken by junior and senior high school students who anticipate attending college.

About 16 percent of Illinois high school graduates take the SAT; about 64 percent take the ACT.

Illinois SAT mathematics scores have remained essentially high and unchanged over the last nine years, Dr. Cronin reported, while national scores have continued to slide.

Illinois SAT verbal scores decreased from 1969 to 1975, but have remained essentially stable in the last three years.

"The gap between the higher Illinois verbal scores and those in the rest of the nation continues to widen," he noted.

Since 1967, Illinois ACT scores have measured slightly higher or close to the national scores.

Although Illinois ACT scores appear to have decreased from 1970 to 1976, they have remained essentially level in the last two years.

Dr. Cronin also announced results of the Illinois Inventory of Education Progress (IIEP), a statewide survey of student achievement.

Initiated in 1976 in response to a nationwide push for educational accountability, the IIEP is administered each academic year to a random sample of students in Illinois in the fourth, eighth and eleventh grades.

On the mathematics portion of the test, Illinois students showed a slight improvement on metric items in all three grade levels after a relatively poor showing on metrics two years ago.

"The scores indicate that renewed efforts in the area of measurement, including professional training workshops in metrics, are beginning to pay dividends," Dr. Cronin said.

"Increased effort also seems to be producing in the area of computation, which includes test items in addition, subtraction, multiplication and division."

"Historically, computation has been an area of lower student performance on standardized tests."

"Because of this, many Illinois districts have recently increased their efforts in this area. The 1976 scores, slightly higher than those in 1974, reflect this extra effort."

Also tested on the IIEP was science. The assessment included items dealing with life science (biology), physical science (physics and chemistry), and earth science (geology and meteorology).

Students were tested on both concepts and facts on the requirements of the scientific method, and on their ability to make inferences and solve scientific problems.

"Students showed highest achievement in life science and lowest in earth science. There seems to be a good understanding of the scientific method at each grade level tested," the state superintendent commented.

"The most useful student

Abandon auto

Police are attempting to identify the driver of an auto which struck a parking meter and then went into a side window at P. N. Hirsch & Co., 1326 Nineteenth St., early this week.

Witnesses said three young men abandoned the car and walked east on 19th Street. Investigation indicated the three took a taxicab into Missouri a short time later. The car, which is being held by police, is registered to a Jonesboro, Ark., man.

TUESDAY ACCIDENT at 27th Street and Madison Avenue which resulted in injuries to both drivers at 7:45 a.m. Granite City ambulance

Two hurt on Madison Ave.

Both drivers were injured when the cars of Jacqueline Davidson, 17, of 2137 Lynch Ave., and Patricia Huniak, 45, of 4136 Rode Ave., collided at 7:45 a.m. Tuesday at 27th Street and Madison Avenue.

Jacqueline Davis was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way after her southbound auto turned left in front of Mrs. Huniak's northbound car. Miss Davis said her vision was obscured by two northbound autos stopped in the center lane. Mrs. Huniak was taken by Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was admitted with injuries to her left shoulder, neck and head. Miss Davis declined to be taken to the hospital for minor injuries.

10,878 employed at $260 million base

Two thousand, nine hundred and forty acres of land, 897 buildings and 22,828 people — plus a few other mind-boggling figures add up to make Scott Air Force Base a big operation. The 375th Aeromedical Aircraft Wing and 375th Air Base Group are the host organizations at the Belleville base, with 37 tenant units and responsibilities to 66 off-base organizations, a spokesman said today.

Scott's capital assets include the acreage and buildings mentioned, plus 7,037 feet of single runway and 15 computers. The assets translate in dollar assets to $260,579,483.

Six thousand, five hundred and eighty assigned military, 3,022 assigned civilians, 241 non-appropriated fund employees — not including part-time help — 11,750 dependents and 1,035 contractor employees make up the 22,828 people associated with Scott.

The primary mission of the base at present in aeromedical aircraft. Twelve C-9 aircraft are assigned, with C-9 flying hours for the fiscal year totaling 18,210.

Two thousand, two hundred and ninety-three aeromedical missions moved 36,006 patients. Forty-two support aircraft bring the total of assigned aircraft to 54, with 479,713 manhours expended on aircraft maintenance for the year.

Scott Medical Center reported 7,167 hospital admissions and 252,921 outpatient visits in 1978.

Civil engineering operations and maintenance report 481,761 direct labor manhours. And supply completed 1,402,904 transactions on the 1050-C1 computer.

Transportation logged 438,546 miles driven in vehicle operations.

Scott's economic impact on the local region for fiscal year 1978 breaks down like this:

Salaries — $163,251,341.
Utilities — $295,000.
Contracts — $38,893,128.
Transportation of goods — $172,800.

Grand total — $227,077,690.

Checkerboard Squares in popular demand

The Checkerboard Squares are providing entertainment for a variety of groups and adding new routines, according to Bob Boyd, 39 Villa Drive, the group's leader.

The group entertained at halftime at the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville versus Bradley University women's basketball game during the weekend.

A "clog" square and a new disco number "You Should Be Dancing" from the score of "Saturday Night Fever," was presented.

Friday the Checkerboard Squares will entertain a group of handicapped children in Alton and involve the children in dancing with help of the Checkerboard members.

The group will perform at halftime about 1 p.m. in the St. Louis Checkerdome during a St. Louis University-Memphis basketball game.

The Checkerboard Squares have been in continuous existence since 1957 and practice every Monday evening at the Polish Hall in Madison.

The dancers range in age between 6 and 19. Checkerboards participating in the SIUE show were: Diane Siler, Moe Ricketts, Vincent Dohal, Ray Jones, Sylvia Gott, Rosemary Jarvis, Dawn Langford, Steve Dohal, Sherri Macrum, Brenda Gott, Vicki Koester, Felicia Urioste, Kim O'Dell, Tracy Jones, Cheryl Siler and Darla Daigger.

Hearing here on urban funds

Madison County has been informed by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development that there is $4.6 million available in discretionary monies. The maximum amount the county may apply for is $1,000,000.

Activities that may be undertaken with these funds are community-development type activities funded as part of the urban county program," a Madison County Community Development official said today.

"The County of Madison is interested in making application to receive a grant allocation from the above discretionary monies.

"Citizen participation is desired in the development of both the pre-application and application.

"Accordingly, a public hearing has been scheduled for Wednesday, Dec. 27, at 7 p.m. at the Madison Recreation Center, 7th & Lee Streets, Madison, to hear citizen input and proposals.

"The public is invited to attend the hearing."

When the gift box is more fun than the gift

By CATHERINE MAUCK Christmas means little to the extremely young child. Up to the age of two, the man with the oversized tummy, deep laugh and woolly beard produces fear.

Don't be surprised if your child hides behind your coat or howls a protest upon seeing Santa Claus at your local toy store. This stranger, in a strange outfit, seems to threaten the security of a small child whose world still awes him.

At about age two, a child becomes more aware of Santa, but the noise and confusion that surround Santa may still create fear. The child becomes more interested in Christmas, but not the way you would like.

He's absorbed with his presents and what he's going to get. He may go to the decorated tree several times a day to ask: "This one's mine?" "That one's mine?" He will selfishly guard all that belongs to him.

Both the two- and the three-year-old begin to show more interest in the wrapping, especially the boxes, than the gifts.

The three-year-old begins to show a mild interest in Santa, recognizing that he delivers toys. He gets excited by the holiday season and is pleased with his gifts.

By the age of four, a child believes in "Jolly old St. Nicholas" — complete with flying reindeer — and wants all the details of the story. At this age, he also confuses the story with the details of Baby Jesus.

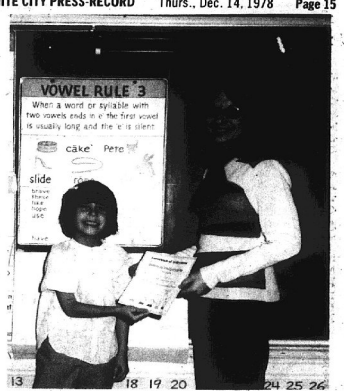

The real Santa ages are five and six. A youngster in this age group usually has an all-encompassing belief in the story.

The wonder and enjoyment the child experiences at these ages offsets any temporary disappointment that may come later.

The five-year-old likes to write or dictate letters telling Santa what he wants for Christmas. He wants and plans to visit Santa. Also, he starts to become interested in giving as well as receiving.

The six-year-old responds basically the same way. However, he begins to hear "doubting talk" from his friends.

He may imagine every detail of the Santa story and will describe the North Pole and the elves making toys in Santa's workshop.

READS 100 BOOKS. Amy Jo Heiman, a first grade pupil at Webster School, shows her teacher, Mrs. Marilyn Fritsch, a certificate received at a school assembly for being the first pupil at Webster to read 100 books since the 1978-79 school year began.

1st grader tops Webster readers

Amy Jo Heiman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Heiman, 229 E. 25th St., was presented a reading certificate at an assembly held at Webster School.

Amy, a first-grade student in Mrs. Marilyn Fritsch's class, was the first person at Webster School to be honored for reading 100 books.

She also will receive a pin from B. J. Davis, Granite City superintendent of schools, at an awards dinner to be held at the end of the school year.

A total of 55 students was presented with certificates and seals, representing reading achievement from 10 to 75 books.

LOOT SODA MACHINE

About $18 in change was stolen from a soft drink vending machine in front of the Moto service station, Route 203 and Harrison Street, it was discovered Monday. The machine was forced open and damaged.

Anne Carver, 38, of 54 Venice Homes, Venice, was injured when her auto struck the parked car of Greg Spence, 2900 Palmer Ave., in a no-parking zone at Niedringhaus Avenue and Cleveland Boulevard at 11 p.m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Carver said she was rushing to the hospital after experiencing chest pains when the accident occurred. She was taken by Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was examined and was released.

Spence was issued a parking ticket.

LOOT MOBILE HOME

Caroling fund solicitation is defended

Junior Girl Scout Troop 860 of St. Margaret Mary's School participated Sunday evening in Christmas caroling on Sunset and Dogwood drives.

The troop was split into three groups, with adult supervision, and each group had a sign, "Help A Needy Family."

"No permit through City Hall was obtained for this cause, as we did not know of the law, 'no solicitations after dark,'" it was related by Dee Loyet, leader, of 2810 Sunset Drive.

"I would like to assure the people who called in the complaints to the police and had the squad car sent out — which frightened the scouts, ages 9 through 11 — that this was a worthy cause and every cent collected goes to the needy family."

"What is surprising is that the same troop was out last year in the same area for the same cause and they seemed to welcome us then."

"People say, what's wrong with the kids today — they're destructive and always getting into trouble."

"But when you have a group that's working for a good cause to help others, adults are still complaining. Who's changed — the kids or the parents?"

"The troop would like to thank those who took our Christmas caroling gesture in the spirit it was meant."

Mrs. Delores Helms dies

Mrs. Delores V. Helms, 49, of 2548 Center St., a lifelong resident of Granite City, died at 8:48 p.m. Monday at St. Elizabeth Hospital where she had been a patient one week.

Mrs. Helms was a member of the First Christian Church, 2904 Maryville Road.

Survivors include her husband, Guy Helms; two daughters, Mrs. John (Donna) Scarborough and Mrs. Sonny (Carol) Tartt, both of Granite City; a brother, Herman Hinds of Granite City; three sisters, Mrs. Jack (Eleanor) Kelly of Anaheim, Calif., Mrs. Jack (Norma) Haynes, Maywood, Calif., and Mrs. Victor (Juanita) Robertson of Haywood, Calif.; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held today. Details are given in the obituary column.

Holiday observance at Mt. Zion Baptist

A Christmas observance is planned Sunday evening at Mount Zion Baptist Church, 2067 Benton St., it was announced today by the Rev. Donald Clark, pastor.

Events will begin with a potluck dinner and fellowship hour in the church basement at 5 p.m. Sunday.

The congregation will adjourn to the sanctuary after dinner to view a program presented by the puppet ministry of the Free Will Baptist Church of Roxana.

In conclusion, the Mount Zion choir's presentation of "King of Love" will be featured, under the direction of Herb Cannon.

The public is invited to attend all events at the church, the Rev. Clark advised.

Hearings on sediment and erosion

The public can help develop future soil conservation programs, says Jack Vasey, Madison County Soil and Water Conservation District Board vice-chairman.

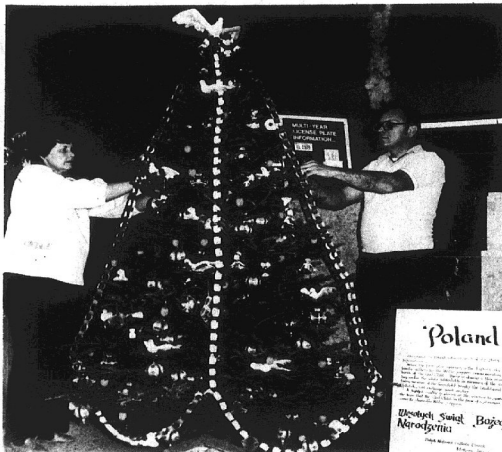

In an effort to safeguard soil and water quality, the Illinois legislature has amended the state's Soil and Water Conservation District Law. The amendment directs the Illinois Department of Agriculture to develop guidelines for a comprehensive erosion and sedimentation program for Illinois land.

Vasey says the Illinois Department of Agriculture will hold public hearings on its proposed program and guidelines in early 1979.

Once the guidelines have been set, each soil and water conservation district will have two years to develop erosion control standards following the department's guidelines.

Local districts will have advisory committees—representing a wide variety of interests—to help develop the standards. These standards will also be discussed and voted on at area public hearings, says Vasey.

Cost-share money and technical assistance will be available to help land users comply with erosion control standards, providing that adequate local, state or federal funds are obtainable.

New phone directories

A new telephone directory for the Quad-Cities is being distributed. Kenneth Evers, local Illinois Bell manager, said the new directories are being delivered now to homes and businesses.

The cover of the new directory features the three winners from this region in an elementary and junior high school art contest sponsored by Illinois Bell. The winners—one each from lower, middle and upper grades—were chosen by a panel of independent judges. Each winner received a set of the World Book Encyclopedia and a $50 cash prize plus $300 worth of art material for his or her school.

Those whose drawings appear on the directory cover are Larry Keeling of Greenville Grade School, grade 8; Daniel Elliot Zalkowski of Belleville Wolf Branch School, grade 6; and Tricia Shively of Belleville Belle Valley North School, grade 2.

"We hope people will enjoy the art work on the cover," Evers said.

"We're glad to have this opportunity to showcase the work of these youngsters."

"And a reminder—right inside that front cover—gives the very important emergency phone numbers for local police and fire departments and for medical help."

Evers suggested that those who haven't already done so may wish to copy down the emergency numbers for their own community, and post them near the telephone.

The first few pages of the book contain other information, including calling instructions, types of telephone service available, long distance rates, unit charges, telephone area codes for other communities, and more.

Also included once again near the front of the Granite City directory is a page of "helpful numbers." It's a list of frequently-called or hard-to-find numbers, such as government agencies and services offered by the community.

Yellow pages in the back of the directory have business listings, maps and zip codes. One other hint from Evers is for everyone who uses the book as a storage place for letters or other papers: "Give your old directory a good shake before discarding it. People have sometimes lost valuable documents that they put in the directory for safe-keeping and then forgot about."

Illinois Bell suggests that anyone who hasn't received the new directory by Dec. 27 call the telephone company business office. A directory will be delivered promptly. Requests for extra copies or for directories from other areas also may be made to the business office.

student transportation. Also included in the budget recommendation is an increase of $27 million for teachers' retirement which represents a 12 percent rise over the funding level for 1979-79.

The State Board will seek an additional $500 million from federal education grants.

Requests for state funds will amount to an 8.8 percent increase over last year, while the general state aid formula calls for a four percent increase. The request reflects an anticipated three percent drop in enrollment against a seven percent increase in inflation.

Supl. Joseph M. Cronin notes that while President Carter did not "spill out any guidelines concerning schools, the budget recommendations are compatible with the seven percent wage and price guidelines suggested for the nation. The state education agency operations budget will be held to an overall increase of 5.5 percent."

New programs include a "high impact training for economic development grant to help attract and hold industry in need of skilled personnel through special training."

Also included in the budget recommendation is a request for desegregation assistance to reimburse school districts for court-ordered or voluntary desegregation.

The budget, which the State Board will consider and adopt in January, then will go to the governor and General Assembly for review during the 1979 legislative session.

Church Christmas programs in the Quad-Cities

Baptist Churches yule programs

Baptist Churches in the Quad-City area are completing arrangements for Christmas programs featuring church and children performing in plays relating to the religious and Christmas season this month.

Calvary Baptist, 3000 Washington Ave., will view "An Old Fashioned Christmas" under the direction of Bill Ellsworth on Sunday, Dec. 17, performed by the church choir. The Sunday School Christmas program is set for Wednesday, Dec. 20.

"Little Christmas Angel" is the theme for the Sunday School Department presentation of Emmanuel Baptist, 1800 Pontoon Road, on Sunday, Dec. 17, according to an announcement by the pastor, the Rev. Bill Young. The choir, under the direction of Jack Jenkins of Second Baptist Church, 2100 Illinois Ave., will perform "The Night of Miracles" on Sunday, Dec. 17, the Rev. Carl Watkins reported. Third Baptist, 26th Street and Grand Avenue, will have "Down From His Glory" presented by the choir during the morning worship hour on Sunday, Dec. 24, under the direction of Stephen Hall.

A Carol and Candlelight service is planned for the evening service, the Rev. Roy Johnson added. The choir of New Hope Baptist Highway 3 and Moffat St., Mitchell, directed by Joyce Richardson, will sing "Shepherds Rejoice" on Sunday, Dec. 17, at the Pontoon Baptist Church, 4008 Pontoon Road, pastored by the Rev. Pat Fife.

Worship hours at St. Mary's

St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, 1621 Tenth St., Madison, will conduct the procession to the crib at 11:45 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 24, and a solemn high mass will be celebrated at 12 midnight.

Masses on Monday, Dec. 25, will be at 7 a.m., 9 a.m. and 11 a.m., according to the church announcement.

Eastern Orthodox services planned

The Nativity of the Virgin Mary Eastern Orthodox Church, Fifth and Ewing streets, Madison, will open its Christmas observances at 6:45 a.m. on Saturday, Dec. 23, with royal hours and on Dec. 24, at 9 a.m. the divine liturgy with the nativity of eve vigil at 8 p.m. the Nativity of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Monday, Dec. 25, with divine liturgy of St. Basil at 9 a.m. and the following day, Tuesday, Dec. 26, at 9 a.m. - synaxis of the Mother of God, divine liturgy.

Jaycees selling Christmas book

If you have a child for whom you need a Christmas present, the Venice Jaycees may have the answer. A coloring, game and ornament book is being sold for $3 by the Jaycees. It is called "Santa's Workshop Fun Book" and has many pages of coloring scenes of Santa and his helpers as well as Christmas cards that can be cut out and mailed.

Persons wishing to purchase the book may contact any member of the Venice Jaycees, or call 877-2114 and leave an order which a Jaycee member will deliver. Proceeds from the sale of the book will be used for local civic projects of the Jaycees.

James Harrell is president and Bruce Fletcher is the project chairman.

A medley of Christmas music is to be presented by the Adult Choir of Suburban Baptist, 2500 St. Clair Ave., led by Gregg Riddley on Sunday, Dec. 17. The Sunday School children's program is set for Dec. 20, and will be a pageant entitled "Christmas Windows" by Mayme Christensen and Flora M. Frick. A candlelight service is planned for 5 p.m., the Rev. Harold Garrett announced.

A children's Sunday School program is scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 17, at Temple Baptist, 714 McCambridge Ave., Madison, to be followed by a film "The Other Wise Man," the Rev. Jack Gouy noted. On Dec. 24, a special candlelight service will be held. The First Baptist Church, 1247 Klein St., Venice, will host its Christmas program on Sunday, Dec. 24, under the leadership of William Fine.

First Presbyterian holy programs set

Christmas observances at the First United Presbyterian Church, 2160 Delmar Ave., will begin promptly at 9 a.m. Sunday, Dec. 24, with the church school children presenting its annual pageant, "The First and the Last," by the Rev. and Jan Morris, the Rev. David Maxton announced. Each of the Sunday School departments will participate in the program and the narrator will be Mary McIlvroy. Mrs. Isabel Schick will accompany the choir singing, a part of the pageant.

Rev. Maxton added at 10 a.m. on Sunday there will be one worship service which will include the choirs of the church singing, "Peace and Good Joy" arranged by Scholien. The Children's Choir also will sing, "The Conventry Carol" which is arranged by James Southbridge.

Sermon topic will be "The Most Beautiful Story in the Bible" and the two pastors, Rev. Maxton and the Rev. Robert Landes, will lead in the liturgy and preaching of the word of the Bible. Directing the choirs will be Mrs. Terry Wafler and Miss Cindy Johnson.

The Christmas eve service at 10:30 p.m. until 12 midnight will feature the Sanctuary Choir singing "Gloria in Excelsis" by Florence Jolley and the offertory is "Bethlehem" and "The Shepherds."

"God in Person" is the sermon subject to be delivered by the minister followed by meditation and the candlelight service featuring four high school senior students leading in the ritual, and holy communion service.

The Deaconess will remember 70 shut-ins and sick and also visit families who have had a death within the year. During the month the church will prepare 16 baskets of food and gifts to be delivered to needy families in the area on Dec. 22. All services are open to the public, the pastor added.

The annual Christmas program of the Nameoki Presbyterian Church, 1800 Pontoon Road, will take place Sunday, Dec. 17 at 7 p.m. Beverly Scroggins and William Bowen are in charge of the event. Refreshments served by the Mariners and Youth Fellowship will follow.

The "Peace of God" will mark the third message in "Close Encounters of the Highest Kind" in the 10:45 a.m. morning devotional worship service, according to Pastor Don Pierson. Christmas Sunday will be marked by special music by the Chancel Choir and the concluding message of the Advent series is entitled "The Way to God." The services will begin at 10:45 a.m. with the public invited. The Sunday Church School will get underway at 8:30 a.m. with a special Christmas event planned by Joyce Toussaint and Ruth Todd, Rev. Pierson added.

The Youth Fellowship will be on its annual Christmas Caroling outing Saturday evening, Dec. 23. They will leave from the church at 8:30 p.m. and return to the home of their sponsors, Ray and Judy Hanks for refreshments and an evening of fellowship. The Junior and Senior High group put together this year's Christmas treat for the Sunday School children. They invite young people to their meetings on Sundays at 6 p.m.

A holiday luncheon for college and career young people will be held at noon on Thursday, Dec. 28 in the church. A time for renewal and, also "O Little Town of Bethlehem," will be the final chorus to be sung at the 17th annual Christmas candlelight service Sunday, Dec. 17, at 7 p.m. at St. John Lutheran Church, St. Clair and Dale avenues, the pastor, the Rev. Samuel Boda, announced.

He added if any resident in the area has ever sung the Hallelujah Chorus and would like to sing with the church Senior Choir that evening, they are invited to do so. Extra copies of music will be available for the event. The Adult Choir as well as the Children's Choir will make entry into the church's sanctuary by candlelight procession. As the Senior Choir assembles on the chancel steps, under the suspended Herrnhuter Star, the choir and assembled worshippers will join in the singing of some new and some traditional Christmas tunes and carols. Mrs. June Barton, of St. Louis, will be at the organ. While still in the chancel, the choir will sing "Who Knew So Loud?" which is a Tyrolean Christmas anthem also called, "The Inn at Bethlehem," arranged by Clarence Dickinson. The Children's Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Diane Gebhardt, with Miss Debbi Gebhardt at the organ, will sing "Noel, Noel, Noel," by Melvin Rotermund.

Decorated tree in traditional custom

A Christmas tree located in the First National Bank in Madison represents the custom of decorations that was practiced in the more northern regions of Russia (now the USSR) around Moscow and the north, prior to the 1917 Russian revolution.

The angels, towers, Cossack dolls and doves are made out of paper and articles found about the home. The angels of course represent the heavenly host that were found about and above the manger scene at Christ's birth.

The towers represent the church towers or cupolas (as we see in photos of Russian Orthodox Churches) with their onion shaped domes. The doves represent the doves of peace that symbolize the "peace on earth good will towards men" that Christ brought to earth through his incarnation.

The Cossack dolls bring a little of the secular into the scene to add color as well as to round out or complete the full spectrum of existence as created by God; we have the heavenly hosts, we have the animal kingdom and we have humankind, a spokesman noted.

All of the ornaments on this tree were handmade by the young people of the Nativity of the Virgin Mary Eastern Orthodox Church, Madison. The customs of the Russian, Ukrainian, Carpatho-Russian peoples are still to be found among the parishioners of this church whose parents came from three areas and founded the parish in 1900, according to the Rev. Vladimir Lecko, pastor.

TRADITIONAL ORNAMENTS created by the young people of the Nativity of Virgin Mary Eastern Orthodox Church in Madison, adorn a Christmas tree located in the lobby of The First National Bank in Madison. ## Trinity Methodist Christmas Cantata

The choir of Trinity United Methodist Church, East 25th and Henry streets, will present the Christmas Cantata, "Born A King," Sunday at 7 p.m.

Soloists are: tenor - Charles Schubert singing "Behold the Days Come," baritone - Paul Bryant singing "Joseph, Thou Son of David," tenor - Charles Herman singing "Behold, a Virgin Shall Conceive," soprano - Bracomontes singing "Born a King," alto - Mary Bryant singing "Glory to God in the Highest," and tenor - David Bryant singing "Son of Mary." Wanda Robelf is the director. The Christmas Cantata by the Trinity Choir is an annual event to which people from the community as well as the church look forward with expectations. "Visitors always attend and we urge the public to come and share the greatest love story man has ever heard," the Rev. Paul Bryant, pastor, said. After the Cantata, there will be a "Birthday for Jesus" celebration in the church basement. A festive setting and Christmas refreshments will help us celebrate the birth of Jesus, the minister added.

Madison Methodist Church programs

The First United Methodist Church of Madison, Fifth and Ewing streets, will host a Christmas dinner at 5:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 17, to be followed by a Christmas pageant at 7 p.m. At 10:45 a.m. on Sunday, Dec. 24, the choir will sing cantata entitled, "A Star is Born," and at 11 p.m. that night a Christmas Eve candlelight will be conducted, the minister announced.

Christmas programs at Grace Baptist

Three separate programs will be presented at Grace Baptist Church, 2600 Edwards St., in conjunction with the Christmas season. "Christ is Born" will be presented by the Adult Choir on Sunday, Dec. 17, at the morning worship hour at 10:45 a.m., under the direction of Robert Patton. During the evening service at 7 o'clock a Christmas musical entitled "Good News World" will be given by the Grace Youth Choir. The final event will be at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 20 featuring children from ages three to six graders performing in an entertaining segment following the theme "Christmas Means Many Things." Patton, who directs all three affairs, extends an invitation to Quad-City residents to attend.

Nameoki Presbyterian Christmas observances

The annual Christmas program of the Nameoki Presbyterian Church, 1800 Pontoon Road, will take place Sunday, Dec. 17 at 7 p.m. Beverly Scroggins and William Bowen are in charge of the event. Refreshments served by the Mariners and Youth Fellowship will follow.

The "Peace of God" will mark the third message in "Close Encounters of the Highest Kind" in the 10:45 a.m. morning devotional worship service, according to Pastor Don Pierson. Ladies of the Women's Service Guild and other volunteers will serve refreshments to all, following the service, in the downstairs church fellowship hall. The public is invited to the evening's festivities, Rev. Boda added. The Senior Church Choir will visit local nursing homes and the local hospital to carol there on Dec. 19 beginning at 6:30 p.m. Carolers will visit the homes of church members, especially the aged, as time permits.

Red and white decorations were carried out in the hall and for the table appointments.

Seated at the main dinner table was Regent Dorothy Hoedebeck, Father James Newman of Sacred Heart Church, newly appointed chaplain of the circle, Father Victor Chateauvert, pastor of St. Joseph Church, and past regents, Peggy Crikovich, Irma Manning, Florence Portel, Clara Schilling, Marionrose Lambert and Vera Carey.

The regent opened the event by introducing guests, Eva Berry, Juanita Lewis, Rosemarie Moran, Cecelia Cruse, Jeannette Loyet, Klotilde Mosby, Ann Dombek, Lorraine Mitchell, Ann Palsgrove, Father Newman and Father Chateauvert.

After dinner which was hosted by the circle officers, each one present participated in an exchange of secret pal gifts and they received special prizes.

The musical group from Madison also led the group in singing Christmas carols followed by dancing.

Cookies and punch was served later in the evening. It also was announced the donated canned foods will be delivered to needy families in time for Christmas. The next meeting is set for Jan. 4 at the KC Hall.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN MOULTON.

They were united in marriage in an evening ceremony at Mount Zion General Baptist Church. Formerly Miss Laura Lou Browning, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary D. Browning, 852 Thorngate Drive, Mitchell.

Laura Browning bride of John E. Moulton

Brown and ivory streamers and bells provided the setting at Mount Zion General Baptist Church for the wedding on Nov. 4, of Miss Laura Lou Browning, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary D. Browning, 852 Thorngate Drive, and John Edward Moulton, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moulton, 1940 Joy Ave.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony at 7 o'clock in the evening was the Rev. John Robert Widdin.

Nuptial selections included "Daddy's Little Girl," "Lady," "Wedding Song" and "Devoted To You."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a full length ivory Chantilly lace gown designed with a fitted bodice, scoop neckline, edged with a double Venice lace ruffle, and long tapered sleeves with ruffled cuffs.

The bouffant skirt, worn over a hoop, was fashioned with a double apron effect edged in Chantilly lace and extending into a chapel train.

Her fingertip veil was bordered in Chantilly lace and attached to a cap of matching lace etched with pearls, and she carried a bouquet of silk flowers in autumn hues.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Pam Browning, and bridesmaids, Sheila Browning and Rhonda Garner, also sisters of the bride, and Kathy Shemwell and Cindy Snider.

They were gownned alike in brown velvet dresses created with molded bodices with tiny shoulder straps and full length skirts, complemented with ivory lace shawls and brown velvet chokers with cameo centers.

They also held arrangements of fall color silk flowers.

Amy Walker, a cousin of the groom, was the flower girl. She wore a long brown velvet frock with a high rise waistline and short sleeves worn with ivory lace cape.

Jason Garner, the bride's nephew, served as the ringbearer.

Rob Modlin attended the groom as best man. Wilmsmeyer, Mark Cain, Greg Moulton, Ken Messina, Randy Moulton, the groom's brother, and Tom Turner, an uncle of the groom, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Guests were received by the newly married couple at a reception held in the church hall after the ceremony. The rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents in the home of Mrs. Don Wiggins, 4 Robin Court, an aunt of the groom.

The couple is now residing in Granite City after a wedding trip to Lake Barkley Resort in Kentucky.

A 1977 graduate of North High School, the bride is a teller at Madison County Federal Savings and Loan.

Her husband was graduated in 1976 from South High School and works as a produce clerk for Schunck's Market.

ANNE WEDS
Princess Anne, only daughter of Britain's Queen Elizabeth II, was wed to Capt. Mark Phillips on Nov. 14, 1973.

GC Jr. Service yule party

A demonstration of Christmas floral arrangements by Betty Hudec was the highlight of a Christmas party for members of the Granite City Junior Service Club held Monday evening at Sunny and Char's Restaurant in Collinsville.

Hostesses for the annual event were Mrs. Betty Nighobesin and Mrs. Rose Ann Bates.

President Donna Sprinkle presided at the business segment following the holiday dinner. She announced the club will deliver Christmas stockings to St. Elizabeth Hospital to be given to new born babies during the holiday season.

Club sponsors, Mrs. Jean Ann Vrenick and Mrs. Betty Jo Kozar were formally introduced by Mrs. Sprinkle.

The president also conducted an installation ceremony for new members, Larrab Rogers, Donna Karen Niebur and Donna McBride. Each initiate received a long stem pink rose at the conclusion of the ritual.

DELORES MARTIN IS PETED ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Delores Martin, 2717 Stratford Lane, was honored at a dinner party in celebration of her birthday, hosted by the honorable Alberta Slavin, a state commissioner for Missouri, at the commissioner's home in Clayton.

The guest list included Dr. and Mrs. Robert McQueen, Stuart Slavin, Linda Slavin, Rae Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hutcheson of Pacific, Mo., Dr. and Mrs. Richard E. Cannon of St. Charles, Tom Dahms, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Bellone, Robert Dornier, Max King, Robert Lee Charles, Vernon Fischer, Dr. and Mrs. Slavin and the honoree. The evening was spent dancing.

MRS. THOMPSON VISITS FAMILY

Mrs. Malcolm Thompson, 4170 Breckenridge Lane, has returned to her home after spending a two week vacation in Texas.

She was the house guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Al Barcus and children, Kelly, Michael and Robert, in Bedford, Tex.

SPEAKER SATURDAY

The December meeting of the Greater Alton Area Chapter of Paul Gospel Businessmen's Fellowship International will be held Saturday at 7 p.m. Fellowship and refreshments will start at 5:45 p.m. at the Steelworkers Abel Hall, 2821 E. Broadway. Speaker will be Fr. Robert Jernman, a priest for the Archdiocese of St. Louis since 1963.

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS KENT of Granite City. They observed their 50th wedding anniversary at a reception given at the Colonnades Nursing Home, where Mr. Kent is a resident.

50th anniversary of Mr., Mrs. Thos. Kent

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kent of Granite City, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a party given at the Colonnades Nursing Home, where Mr. Kent has been a patient for four years.

Mr. Kent and his wife, Victoria, were married on Nov. 30, 1928, in Collinsville. He was employed by Union Electric for 26 years, and the couple also operated a grocery store at 2101 Lee Ave. for 22 years, prior to their retirement.

The Rev. Dale Edwards, pastor of the First Assembly of God Church, sang "The Love of God" and Clelie Talley offered a prayer for the couple before they cut the decorated wedding cake.

Friends and relatives attending the event assisted in serving cake and punch in the recreation hall of the nursing home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kent are the parents of a son, Gerald Kent of Collinsville. They also have four grandsons and two great-grandsons.

Mr., Mrs. W. H. Dearing mark 62nd anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley H. Dearing, 2021 Edwardsville Road, Madison, celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary earlier this month.

Mr. Dearing and his wife, Mary, were age 19 and 18 respectively the time of their marriage on Dec. 2, 1916, and now at age 81 and 80 are still in good health, according to a family spokesman.

The couple have made their home at the present address since their wedding. They are the parents of four children, Mrs. Duane (Margie) Hudskamp of St. Louis, Robert Dearing of Huntington, Ind., Mrs. James (Marie) Bailey of Detroit, Mich., and Roger Dearing of Crestwood, Mo.

YOUNGEST PERSON at a public hearing on the Venice School District's tax increase referendum is Jason Harrell, who could be the one most affected should Venice voters fail to approve a 95-cent per $100 assessed valuation tax rate hike Saturday. Three-year-old Jason, only child of Venice Patrolman and Mrs. James Harrell, will be ready to enter kindergarten in 1980. His mother, Barbara, shown here, wanted to know what the future holds for the financially-distressed system.

Miss Walliser is engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Walliser, 1929 Sixth St., Madison, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Sandra Kay Walliser to Ben Pilcic, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pilcic, 4004 Nameoki Road.

Miss Walliser is a Madison High School graduate and is employed as a clerk in a local store.

Her fiancé was graduated from Granite City High School North and is an assistant manager at Pep Car Wash.

The engaged couple and their families are completing plans for a Feb. 17 wedding to be solemnized at Calvary Pentecostal Assembly.

OUT OF TOWN GUESTS VISIT MRS. HARRISON

Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Ellledge of Joplin, Mo., returned home this week after spending the weekend with the doctor's mother, Mrs. Clara Harrison of Granite City.

While here they also were the guests of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Donald (Eleanor) Beck of Granite City.

BRIDE-ELECT. Miss Sandra Kay Walliser whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Walliser, 1929 Sixth St., Madison, are announcing her engagement to Ben Pilcic. A Feb. 17 wedding is planned.

St. Peter's Afternoon Guild

Church bells in Germany, recorded by Elizabeth Messerschmidt on her last visit there, were played for members of the Afternoon Guild at St. Peter Evangelical United Church of Christ last week.

The occasion was the guild's Christmas luncheon, with 40 members taking part. Mrs. Virginia McLester, program chairman, presented "The Christmas Story," with seasonal carols sung at intervals during the luncheon. An interlude of entertaining numbers was performed by the AARP Rhythm Band, a group of senior musicians.

Mrs. Janet Harmon, president, conducted a brief business session. She asked for volunteers to deliver patchwork lap robes made by members as Christmas gifts for persons confined at home.

It was agreed to save cancelled postage stamps to send to a home for retarded and handicapped children in Germany. Mrs. Gladys Kadar, missionary chairman, explained the collection project.

Luncheon was served at tables covered with festive red cloths and centered with Yuletide arrangements. Mrs. Dorothy Luaders was chairman of the luncheon committee.

The recording of the church bells was played as the benediction.

GC Unit hosts yule party

Members and guests of the Granite City Unit of Madison County Homemakers Extension Association, were entertained at a Christmas luncheon party given last week at the private dining room of Grand Cafe.

As each one arrived they were presented with a Christmas tree name tag pinned on by Mrs. Anne Pare and Mrs. Ann Palisgrove. A holiday decor was used for the table appointments and individual favors, crocheted Christmas wreaths were created by Mrs. Hazel Cline.

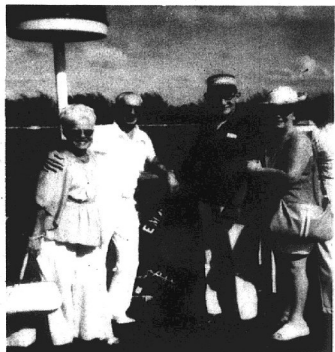

Mrs. Pare opened the gathering with a Christmas prayer and Chairman Wilma Owca offered the welcoming address.

After dinner gifts were exchanged and Mrs. Hulda Griffith presided at the piano and accompanied the group as they sang several holiday carols.

Three handmade Mr. and Mrs. Claus gifts prepared by Mrs. Cline were won by Mrs. Griffith, Mrs. Bernice Johannigmeier and Mrs. Delphine Tutka. Mrs. Martha McElroy read a birthday poem in honor of those observing December birthdays. A large Christmas candle was burning during the afternoon in memory of Mrs. Rosalia Johannigmeier who died this year and other members registered as deceased from previous years.

In keeping with the ceremony Mrs. Owca read a poem entitled, "Portraits." Serving as chairman for the holiday affair were Mrs. Pare, Mrs. Cline and Mrs. Freddie McElroy. Guests attending were Linda King, Susie Yokley, Judy Webb, Helen Patterson, Pauline Holman and Mary Sotich.

Members present included Alma Beckman, Olivia Bergschneider, Mary Blankenship, Bessie Grasso, Emma Gobble, Carlisle Hoffman, Marcie Johnson, LeNeil Lesage, Toni Lynsey, Anna Michels, Helen Oberlin, Helen Parks, Madge Ramsey, Florence Simpson, Martha Taylor, Catherine Todoroff, Elizabeth Schmidt and Mary Zikovich.

PRE-HOLIDAY CRUISE. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Camper of Cape Coral, Fla., left, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Batson of Bradenton, Fla., are spending the pre-Christmas weeks on board the SS Emerald Seas, shown here off Nassau in the Bahamas. All are former residents of Granite City.

MR. AND MRS. HOWARD WIGGER, of 2677 Adams St. They will observe their 40th wedding anniversary on Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. in the home of son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Peterson in Wood River.

40th anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Wigger

Mr. and Mrs. Howard J. Wigger, 2677 Adams St., will be guests of honor at an open house reception on Sunday, Dec. 17, in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin (Carole) Peterson, 131 Ash Ave., Wood River.

The couple will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary and receive friends and relatives from 2 to 5 p.m. No invitations have been issued according to a family spokesman.

Mr. Wigger and his wife, the former Norma Cox, were married on Dec. 23, 1938, in St. Louis.

He retired from Miles Laboratories after 36 years of service as a machinist. He then worked for the Granite City Street Department for three years until his retirement recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Wigger also has one grandchild, Damon Paul Peterson.

Chapter aids nursing home

Beta Eta Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International held its December meeting over the weekend at the Collinsville Holiday Inn with about 50 persons present for the noon luncheon.

Mrs. Helen Thatcher, president, of Edwardsville, was in charge of the business meeting.

At Christmas time, the group of teachers has a service project by which they provide individual gifts for the persons residing at the Troy Professional Care Home. Over 200 gaily wrapped gifts were taken to the home after the meeting by Mrs. Ruth McCarty, project chairman. They will be presented to the residents on Christmas morning and for many of the residents, this is their only Christmas remembrance, Mrs. McCarty noted.

Saturday's program consisted of two parts. The Lewis and Clark Boys' Choir under the direction of Mrs. Jo Bono presented a 20-minute program of unusual Christmas songs, the ones not generally heard. The boys in the choir range in age from nine to 14 years.

The second part of the program was "Christmas Past, Present, and Future" with Mrs. Dianne Williams in charge. Mrs. Williams read a speech by Scrooge from "The Christmas Carol" for the "past." Mrs. Birdine Gresham read a Christmas story by Truman Capote for the "present," and Mrs. Jo Ann Nitz read an original Christmas poem for the "future."

Mrs. Betty Boehm and Mrs. Thilena French provided a nativity grouping with the proceeds to go to increase the recruitment grant which is given to an area high school senior girl, or a previous recipient who is still in college, each year.

Other local area teachers, both retired and active, who were present were Misses Cleo Ulin, Joanne Higgins, Anna Harn, and Mesdames Helen Purkale, Virginia Oram, Sandra DeMoulin, Jean Hurl, Mary Harper, Carol Gendron, Barbara Williams, Gladys Pape, Viola Edwards, and Esther Vastieff.

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR SCHELLER, 2536 Grand Ave., who will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at Sacred Heart Parish Hall.

Mr., Mrs. Scheller to mark anniversary

In honor of their 40th wedding anniversary of the children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Scheller, 2536 Grand Ave., are planning open house on Sunday, Dec. 17, at Sacred Heart Parish Hall.

Ladies Coterie yule luncheon

Burning tapers and holiday greenery decorated the dining tables at the Ramada Inn in Fair View Heights for the annual Christmas party of the Ladies Coterie last week.

The invocation was given by Mrs. Wilfred Cooley and after dinner Mrs. Dawson Wade told the story of the Legion of the Tinsel and the Nightingale.

President Mrs. Emmett Beeler presented each member with a special gift. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in singing carols, playing games and holding a gift exchange.

Those attending were Mesdames Ted Aufderheide, Marvin Eddington, Keith Edwards, G. E. Filcoff, Hugh Foster, James Fox, David Friedman, E. Griffith, Lyndell Hagaman, Fred Haug, Floyd Henley, Ray Horn, David Johns, John Kenner, B. S. Miller, Alfred Pape, Fred Werner and W. M. Cariss.

Mrs. Brokaw entertains

The Past Matrons Club of Granite Chapter 650, Order of Eastern Star, met last week at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Brokaw, with 14 members present.

A business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Betty McClintock, president, who welcomed a new member, Mrs. Dorothy Watkins.

Thank you notes were read from several members. It was reported that Mrs. Ida Cariss will leave for Florida to spend the remainder of the winter with her daughter and family.

Several were reported to be ill and hospitalized. There was a memorial for the late Mrs. Eva Shearer.

Dessert was served and games were played, with prizes being awarded to Mrs. Betty Ebrecht, Mrs. Mary Billew and Mrs. Ida Cariss. Others attending were Mrs. Karmyn Edmonds, Mrs. Arline Fox, Mrs. Hulda Griffiths, Mrs. Clara Harbig, Mrs. Bess Henley, Mrs. Virginia John, Mrs. Mary Ellen Lewis and Mrs. Frances Williams.

At the close of the evening's events, each one was presented a small ceramic Christmas tree dish from Mrs. McClintock.

BLOOMINGTON — Assignment of teams to the Regional level and selection of sites for all levels of the tournament series in both the 1978 and 1979 series of the Illinois High School Association (IHSA) Boys State Basketball Tournament series have been made.

A total of 735 downstate, suburban and non-Chicago Public League schools will compete in the 1979 series. There are 473 Class A schools (with enrollments of 750 or less) entered in 64 Regionals, and 262 Class AA schools (with enrollments of 751 or more) entered in 85 Regionals. There are 62 schools in the Chicago Public League, which advances its champion to the Class AA State Final Tournament. Last year, a total of 733 schools entered in the series, of which 470 competed in Class A and 263 (excluding Chicago Public League schools) in Class AA. In 1977, a total of 729 entered the series (474 in Class A and 255 in Class AA).

Class AA Regionals for this area will be held in Granite City (to be hosted by North at Memorial Gymnasium), Edwardsville, Belleville East and Wood River.

Area Class A regionals will be held at Freeburg, Litchfield, St. Elmo and Weslin.

Schools are classified according to their enrollment on the last school day in September as reported to the Illinois Office of Education (IOE) and the IHSA Office. In the case of all-boys schools, the enrollment is doubled. In the case of three-year high schools, an additional one-third of the reported enrollment is added. In all instances the four-year enrollment figure is that which is used for classification purposes in all IHSA series in which the competition is conducted under a classified format.

A total of five new schools will participate in the Class AA series. Schools moving from Class A to Class AA status are Quincy (Notre Dame), St. Jacob (Triad) and Sparta. New schools competing in basketball for the first time are Crystal Lake (South) and Streamwood.

A total of seven schools dropped from Class AA to Class A status. They are Clinton, Greenville, Herscher, Hillsboro, Lansing (Illiana Christian), Lisle (Sr.) and Princeton.

The large number of changes in school status and the geographic location of those schools has made a significant impact on the assignment of schools to first level (Regional) competition statewide. In the Class A series, there will be 25 Regionals with eight teams assigned and 39 Regionals with seven teams assigned. In Class AA, there will be 19 Regionals with six teams assigned and 37 Regionals with four teams assigned. The Boys Basketball Series Terms and Conditions require that the Class AA

Regionals be either a four-team or six-team format, and that the Class AA Regionals be a seven-team or eight-team format.

A total of 167 sites — 89 in Class A and 78 in Class AA — are needed to conduct the two-class Boys State Basketball Tournament series. A total of 726 games will be played in the whole tournament series to determine the top four finishers in each class. There will be a total of 473 games in Class A (409 at the Regionals, 48 at the Sec-

Trojans move away for victory over McKinley

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor

MADISON — So much for sophistication, at least for now.

The Madison High School Trojans basketball team had a little trouble with a very basic part of the sport here Tuesday night... holding on to the ball. But after the Trojans had shaken off its case of "fumbleitis," they had themselves their fifth victory in six starts over McKinley High of St. Louis.

"We didn't really play all that bad," said Madison Coach Larry Graham. "But we had trouble holding onto the ball and our shots just wouldn't drop for us early."

That could be called an understatement of sorts. Graham's troops committed a total of 30 turnovers in the contest. Luckily McKinley's Goldbugs found the disease contagious. They turned the ball over 32 times.

"It wasn't very artistic, but we'll take it," said Graham. "I think we're coming along really well for no more time than we've had to get ready for this season."

"It's a long road to hoe... we're just getting started."

Early in the game, the Trojans had trouble doing anything productive. They would run the patterns properly, pass to the open man... and miss the shot.

Madison 81, McKinley 58

MADISON — Eric Stanley 17, Maurice Hughes 16, Carlyn Jackson 15, Tyrone Echols 3, James Heard 12, Ken Stanley 13, Ricky Powers 5. FG 31, FT 19, PF 18.

McKINLEY — Delbitt Jenkins 14, Perry Paris 12, Robert Turner 21, Earl Byrd 2, Vernon Johnson 7, Lester Hopkins 6, Demetrius Johnson 6. FG 25, FT 19, PF 25.

But then Graham made as a change in the lineup which would prove to be a virtual stroke of genius later. He inserted sophomore Maurice Hughes and Tyrone Echols.

"Maurice could be the best player we've got," said Graham. "He's young and inexperienced. I know, but potentially he's got as much talent as just about anyone I've ever coached."

That's strong praise for a gangly 6-3 sophomore who's still a little wet behind the ears. But Hughes, once in the lineup, demonstrated why Graham feels so highly about him. He immediately blocked a shot, passed the ball off to a teammate and eventually tipped in a rebound at the other end of the floor... all within a minute of coming into the game.

"He's going to be an excellent player. But right now, I'm using him off the bench... partly because of his lack of experience, but mainly because I want to show some depth."

Meanwhile, back at the game, the Trojans were trying to shake off their miseries... and failing miserably. In fact, they allowed McKinley to come back and take a one point lead with about 30 seconds left in the first half. However, a James Heard layup gave Madison a one point lead of its own at the intermission.

In the second half, Madison jumped out to a seven point lead and never lost it. "We just started to execute well," said Graham. "I guess the shots were finally starting to drop for us, too."

"The shots were taking in the first half weren't had ones, they just weren't falling."

However, at the end of the game, Madison had shot 31 out of 66 attempts for 47 percent. McKinley made 28 of 57 attempts for 44 percent.

But the time the end of the third quarter had rolled around, Madison had established itself and rolled to a 52-46 lead.

"I thought it looked as if McKinley was getting tired late in the game," said Graham. "It don't know if trepreneur good player by the time he's a senior," said we're in any better shape than they are, we just try and rotate our lineup enough so that everybody gets a little rest now and then.

"Not all of them, but many of our players will tell us when they're tired. That helps."

Madison may not have been in the game early if it had not been for Eric Stanley, the 6-3 center for the Trojans. He tipped in many a missed shot inside for Madison and ended the game as its leading scorer with 17 points.

In fact, Madison placed five players in double figures. Stanley, Hughes with 16 points, Carlyn Jackson with 15. Heard with 12 and Kenny Stanley with 13. "That's going to be a trademark for us this season," said Graham. "There isn't any one player who's going to consistently lead the team in scoring."

"I don't think it'll be unusual to see four or five players in double figures every game."

Madison will get its next taste of action tomorrow (Friday) night when it hosts East St. Louis Assumption. Junior varsity action will start at 6:30 p.m. with the varsity contest immediately after.

to win easily 81-58. The Trojans' record is now 5-1. They host East St. Louis Assumption tomorrow (Friday) with the junior varsity game set for 6:30.

Venice gives Summer all it wants in thriller

By KEVIN ALLEN
for the Press-Record

VENICE — A simple addition error cost Venice's Red Devils a chance to tie

Sumner High in a basketball game played Tuesday night at Venice.

Confused? So were Venice's coach Ken Perkins,

Venice's scorekeeper Larry Ward, and the entire Venice team.

All this confusion was a result of a series of events during the final seconds of the game. Venice guard James Watkins intercepted a Sumner pass and took the ball in for the basket all alone. This was a score 62-58 in favor of Sumner.

After Sumner called a time out, they put the ball in bounds and started down the floor. With about 20 seconds on the clock, Venice's Derik Mathis was called for a foul on Sumner's forward James Lockette.

Lockette's shot from the foul line bounced out of the basket and was rebounded by Wendell McIntyre of Venice who passed upcourt to Arnold Rigger. Rigger was fouled and his shot from the line was off target. Rigger grabbed the rebound, swung his way out, and sent a perfect 20-foot fall away jump shot in, pulling Venice to within two points, 62-60, with about 15 seconds left.

The teams traded turnovers. Then, with 4 seconds showing on the clock, Rigger fouled Sumner guard Antonio Gray. The free throw bounced high and came down in the hands of Ricky Jones, Venice center, who signaled for the controversial time-out as his feet hit the floor.

Venice had three seconds to pass the ball inbounds to Jones who would drive to the basket trying to tie the game. Or did they?

Sumner's coaches were up on their feet protesting that Venice had already used their allotted time-outs. After consulting with the official scorer, Larry Ward, the officials called a technical foul on Perkins for delay of

My Christmas list

Ah yes! It's Christmas time again. It's that time when all over the world people reflect on another year, spend time with loved ones and exchange gifts. It's also a time for basketball tournaments. That's right, in the middle of all those fa-la-la-las and jingle bells, the sound of ball bouncing on hardwood will be heard.

But this column isn't about those holiday tournaments, it's about Quad Cities area high school athletic personalities, and what I think they should get for Christmas.

Here's what Santa will probably have in his bag to the following:

- Don Deterding and Bill Ohlendorf
GC South and North basketball coaches
3,500 cardboard people each to put in the stands at their home basketball games, so their teams won't be so shocked when they play before large crowds on the road.
- Walt Whitaker
North wrestling coach
12 clones of Kris Whelan.
- Gene Baker
South soccer coach
A lifetime participants' pass to the IHSA state soccer finals, wherever they're held. It'd help keep down the postage of sending them to him every November.
- Conrad "Babe" Champion
South baseball coach and head of South lighting committee
A bond issue to build a domed-stadium at GCHS South. Of course, that's after the Astro-turf is installed.
- Russ Chappell
North golf coach and basketball referee
A new pair of glasses. Anyone who calls "foul in the jump circle" as much as he does needs new specs.

- Don Deterding (again)
A new last name.
Ken Perkins
Venice basketball coach
An easier schedule. The Boston Celtics would probably have a little less help from a couple of the teams the Red Devils play this season.
- Bill "Red" Schmitt
South wrestling coach
A 3,000 pound Japanese Sumo wrestler.
- Bob Guehr
SIUE soccer coach
A few Granite City soccer players on his team. I realize, of course, they aren't St. Louis Catholic school products, but maybe they'd help him WIN that NCAA Soccer Championship, instead of just being in the running for it every year.
- Pat Yates
South girls tennis and basketball coach
A tape of recorded crowd sounds and cheers... just for a change of pace.
- Bryan Wilkinson
North athletic director
One season for North in the South Seven Conference and a case of Buckhorn Beer.
- Roger Smith
South athletic director
A free ticket to the state girls field hockey tournament and a case of Buckhorn Beer.
- Bob Kehoe
North soccer coach
A map to Defunk, Ill., site of next year's state soccer tournament. With the team he has coming back next season, he might just need to know how to get there... for a reason other than being a spectator.

- Larry Graham
Madison basketball coach
A loss to Lebanon during the regular season this year. That would almost virtually assure Madison of hosting the Lebanon in the Sectional Tournament, wouldn't it?
- The GCHS South soccer team
Anything they want.
- The Madison basketball team
Shin guards so they won't hurt themselves on the rims this season.
- Remember during holiday season (and all year, for that matter) that it's not the outcome of the athletic events that matters. It's what your son or daughter learns from them.
- Also remember that we're all in this together. Whether you live on the North or South side of Granite City or in Madison or Venice. These "gift" suggestions have all been in fun, you realize.
- Also stop and reflect on what has transpired the past year in our area sports. We've got something to be proud of... all of us.

Castans leaving SIUE grapplers

EDWARDSVILLE — The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville wrestling Cougars, because of inclement weather, did not attend the Central Missouri University Invitational last weekend at Warrensburg, Mo. The Cougars were defending champions.

The Cougars have been dealt a heavy loss in the departure of sophomore star Bill Castans, who formerly wrestled at 177 pounds. He cited personal reasons for leaving school. Coach Larry Kristoff commented: "We will surely miss Billy's presence. But Mark Hatendorf is dropping down from 190, so the hole will be filled in Castans' old weight class."

If weather permits, the Cougars will travel to Warrensburg, Saturday (Dec. 16) for three dual meets. The Cougars will vie with defending Division II champs Northern Iowa, host Central Missouri, and Western Colorado.

But jayvees fall, 30-29

North wrestlers easily down Parkway North

ST. LOUIS — The Granite City North wrestlers (varsity) totally dominated Parkway North here Tuesday night and easily took a 41-18 victory. North upped its dual meet record to 6-1.

At 98 pounds, North's Gerald Miller won by a pin in 57 seconds. Russ Grasso and Bob Kirgan won by forfeit at the 105 and 112 pound divisions.

Steelers Tracy Patton also won by virtue of a pin. He did it to his Parkway opponent at the 5:24 mark of their bout. Alan Kirgan of North was the first Steeler to take a decision when he won 13-11 in his 126 pound bout. Greg Shennell won his 132 pound bout 12-7.

The next two weight classes, 138 and 145 pounds, were both losses for North. Kevin Shennell fell at 138 by a 5-0 score and Bruce Unnoff lost his 145 bout 6-1.

Then North showed some strength in the upper weights by taking both the 155 pound class and the 167 pound divisions. At 155, Steeler Tracy Patton won by pinning his opponent in 2:37 and Mitch Steen won his 167 pound match 11-9.

Mike Painter lost in the 185 pound class for North, being pinned by his Parkway opponent in 3:47. North's heavyweight Al Sullivan was also pinned (in 44 seconds).

The next action for North's varsity will be Saturday (Dec. 16), when it travels to Parkway West for a 1 p.m. match.

At 105 pounds, North's Rick Brown lost 13-2, while teammate Rick Unger pinned his 119 pound opponent in 4:28.

Allen Huff lost his 119 pound bout 2-1, while Steeler Mark Smith fought to a 12-12 draw with his Parkway foe.

At 145 pounds, Bill Winter lost 5-0, but Mike Steen defeated his Parkway opponent 13-11.

In the final two bouts of the meet, North's Bob Patton and Dave Owens were both pinned by their Parkway foe, 167 and 185 pound opponents.

North's junior varsity will also be in action Saturday at Parkway West.

K-State is next for struggling Cougars

By AL BARNES
For the Press-Record
EDWARDSVILLE — One thing about it, Jim Dudley, coach of the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville basketball Cougars, is either a brave man or a foolhardy one. Truth of the matter is that he is forced to schedule his games where and when he can due to the lack of a gym of his own.

Now, with a 3-4 record, Dudley and his Cougars cagers face a horrendous nine-game schedule on the road, including tonight's three-game slate starting Thursday night in Manhattan, Kan. against the Wildcats of Coach Jack Hartman of Kansas State.

K-State's only loss in its 5-1 season has been to the powerful Oral Roberts U. team at Tulsa, Okla., 61-55. The Wildcats' most impressive victory to date is their 72-42 decision over the Golden Gophers of Minnesota.

Saturday night (Dec. 9) the Cougars lost their second straight tournament championship game by bowing to the host St. Joseph College Pumas, 83-40, at Rensselaer, Ind. The week before, the Cougars had lost in tournament finals, again on the road, to the Augustana College Vikings, 89-83, at Rock Island.

In the title game Saturday against St. Joe's Pumas, the Cougars zoomed out as if they were going to blow their opponents out of the gym as they built a 22-12 lead. From then on, however, it was all downhill as St. Joe rallied to take a 35-31 lead at the half.

Bennie Lewis, who is leading the Cougars in scoring with a 19-point-per-game average, paced the SIUE attack against St. Joe by collecting 16 points. He was honored by being picked to the All-Tournament team. Keil Peebles was next with 14 points. St. Joe had four players in double figures: Dave Downey, 18; Dennis Thomas, 16; Kevin Sims, 15; and Neil Brown, 11.

The Cougars needed a come-from-behind effort to advance to their shot at the St. Joe crown in their game with Indiana U.-Purdue at Indianapolis, Friday night.

Down by a 78-74 score with just 1:37 remaining on the clock, Assistant Coach Gary Head went to "our speed lineup," and the move paid off as Lewis tied it up at the buzzer, 85-85.

In the game Saturday after the game with the Kangaroos, they'll have a vacation until Tuesday, Jan. 2. On that date, it'll be back to the road when they travel west for a game against U. of Nevada at Reno. On that same trip, it'll be U. of Northern Colorado (Jan. 4), University of Wyoming (Jan. 6) and east to Indiana for a toughie against Indiana State-Evansville (Jan. 13).

Then after a game at St. Louis against the UMSL Rivermen Jan. 17, and a trip to Chicago to take on the fast-moving Chikas of the University of Illinois, Chicago Circle, Jan. 20. It will be home cooking for one game when McKendree College comes calling, Jan. 24.

Both series, representatives of each school entered in their respective Regional tournament will meet between Jan. 10 and Jan. 19 to rate the teams assigned to that Regional. Teams will be seeded and the pairings will be announced by the IHSA Office shortly after the completion of the seeding meetings.

On Tuesday, Jan. 9, the annual "rolling of the peas" to determine the Sectional pairings and the matchup of the Super-Sectional winners for the quarterfinal round of the State Final Tournament in this class will be conducted.

Dates for the 8th annual Class A tournament series are: Regionals at 64 sites Feb. 26-March 2; Sectionals at 16 sites March 6 and 7 (except at Normal which is March 8 and March 9); Super-Sectionals at 8 sites March 13; State Final Tournament at Assembly Hall, Champaign, March 16-17.

The Class AA series dates are: Regionals at 56 sites March 5-9; Sectionals at 4 sites March 13-14 and 15; Super-Sectionals at 7 sites March 20 and the State Final Tournament at Assembly Hall, Champaign, March 23-24.

Sectional to south

BLOOMINGTON — A total of 391 downstate, suburban and non-Chicago Public League schools have entered the 42nd annual (but sixth two-class) Illinois High School Association (IHSA) Boys' State Wrestling Tournament series.

Competition will get under way at the district level at 16 Class A district sites and 28 Class AA sites the weekend of Feb. 9-10. Sectionals will be conducted the weekend of Feb. 16-17. The State Final Tournament will be held at the Assembly Hall on the campus of the University of Illinois the weekend of Feb. 23-24.

Last year a total of 393 schools outside the Chicago Public League entered the two-class series. A total of 390 entered in 1977. In 1976 there were a total of 385 schools and in 1975 there were 381. A total of 250 schools will compete in the Class AA (for schools with enrollments of 751 or more) series this winter, while there are 141 in the Class A (for schools with enrollments of 750 or less) series.

A total of 432 wrestlers will advance to the State Final Tournament. The top three finishers in each of the 12 weight classes at the sectional level in each class advance to the Assembly Hall. In Class A there will be 144 wrestlers and in Class AA there will be 288 wrestlers.

Scoring at all levels of the tournament series will be: District and Sectionals — 12 points for 1st place in each weight class; 8 for second; and 4 for third.

Class A State Final 1/4 14 points for 1st place in each weight class; 10 for second; 7 for third; and 4 for fourth.

Class AA State Final — 16 points for 1st place in each weight class; 12 for second; 9 for third; 7 for fourth; 5 for fifth; and 3 for sixth.

State Final Tournaments will add two (2) points to a team's total for each pin, default, forfeit or disqualification earned or awarded. Add two (2) points for each win in the championship bracket (except in the final match) and one (1) point for each win in the consolation bracket (except in the third and fifth place matches). Add one (1) point for each Superior decision victory (of 12 or more points); Add one-half (1/2) point for each Major decision victory (of at least 8 but fewer than 12 points).

Weight classes for the 1979 series will be 98 pounds and under, 105, 112, 118, 126, 138, 145, 155, 185 and Unlimited.

Franklin Park (East Leyden) won the 1978 Class AA title with a record 129½ points, while New Lenox (Providence) ripped Yorkville, 36½, to 53½, for the Class A crown.

Season tickets for the State Final Tournament at a reduced price of $7.00 each are now available by mail. Seating at all levels of the tournament series will be: District and Sectionals — 12 points for 1st place in each weight class; 8 for second; and 4 for third.

Class A State Final 1/4 14 points for 1st place in each weight class; 10 for second; 7 for third; and 4 for fourth.

Class AA State Final — 16 points for 1st place in each weight class; 12 for second; 9 for third; 7 for fourth; 5 for fifth; and 3 for sixth.

State Final Tournaments will add two (2) points to a team's total for each pin, default, forfeit or disqualification earned or awarded. Add two (2) points for each win in the championship bracket (except in the final match) and one (1) point for each win in the consolation bracket (except in the third and fifth place matches). Add one (1) point for each Superior decision victory (of 12 or more points); Add one-half (1/2) point for each Major decision victory (of at least 8 but fewer than 12 points).

Weight classes for the 1979 series will be 98 pounds and under, 105, 112, 118, 126, 138, 145, 155, 185 and Unlimited.

Seasonal tournaments are scheduled to be hosted by: Class A — Mt. Olive, Normal (University), Plano and Byron (Riverdale), Class AA — Burbank (Reavis).

The first and second place finishers in each weight class will advance from the districts to the sectionals, as has been the procedure for many years. In addition to the sectional qualifiers in the Class AA series, the top three finishers in each weight class in the Chicago Public League Qualifying tournament will advance to the State Final.

All night Super-Sectional games are scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. All Super-Sectional games except the game at Evanston (Northwestern) in Class AA will be night games. The game at Evanston (Northwestern) will get under way at 4 p.m.

For the fourth straight year, Pep Bands from IHSA member schools will audition via tape in December and early January for a center stage spot at each of the three State Final Tournaments, where they will perform for fans attending the games in the Assembly Hall and for the statewide television audience.

Nashville is defending Class A champion and will open defense of its title in the 1979 Regional. Lockport (Central) is defending Class AA champion and will begin defense of its title in the 1979 Regional.

'March Madness'...it just could be contagious

By JIM FLYNN
IHSA Assistant
Executive Secretary
(First of Two Parts)

BLOOMINGTON — It's called "March Madness." It may be the most contagious ailment in Illinois since the common cold. It strikes everyone — from Chicago to Cairo, from Galena to Paris — sometime during the third month of the year. It is accompanied by tears of joy and sorrow — a distinct increase in the heartbeat. It is not fatal, yet, everyone who catches it is infected for life.

Since 1908, when Peoria High School beat Rock Island, 48-29, at the Oak Park YMCA Gym in the first State Basketball Tournament, Illinois, in the vernacular of the times, is "up for grabs" until a new state champion is decided.

The late Lewis Omer, then athletic director at Oak Park High School, originated the idea of the State Tournament. Thirteen teams were invited to the tournament. The next year, following Mr. Omer's suggestion, the infant Illinois High School Athletic Association took over the venture, which has emerged as one of the most widely publicized and competitive state prep tournament series in the nation. The 1909 tournament was held in the Bloomington YMCA Gym. Two years later, Bradley University was the site for the State Tournament, and Rockford High School belted Mr. Carroll, 60-15, for the championship. Rockford's 60-point effort would be a title game record for the next 34 years.

For several years, then, the tournament was alternated between Bradley and Millikin University in Decatur. In 1918, Springfield High School's gym was the site of the tournament — the only time it has been held in a high school facility — and the famed Arthur L. Trout guided his Centralia Orphans to the first of three titles they would win under his leadership. At the same time, much-respected Sports Editor Fred "Brick" Young of the Bloomington Pantagraph officiated in his first of a record 12 consecutive state tournaments.

Finally, in 1919, the state tournament found its home in Champaign at the campus of the University of Illinois. The first seven tournaments played on the home court of the "Fighting Illini" were in the Old Gym Annex. When the Old Gym was opened in 1926, the emotional appeal — as well as the demand for tickets — of the tournament mushroomed. Since 1963, the University's concrete "flying saucer" — the magnificent Assembly Hall, with a seating capacity of 15,877 — has been the site of the State Tournament.

Changes in playing format of the tournament have generally spawned increased fan interest and availability of tickets, since the first "Sweet Sixteen" in 1934. In 1936, the series of competition was established to include tournament play at the District, Regional, Sectional and "Sweet Sixteen" level. (In 1941, a one-year experiment with a four-team State Final was conducted.) Next significant change came in 1956, when the present system of eight Super-Sectional encounters produced an "Elite Eight" set of finalists who advance to Champaign for the state-wide televised State Tournament. The two-class system was initiated in 1972 with state-record-shattering 1978 (Thornridge) taking the Class AA (for schools with enrollments of 751 or more) title, and Lawrenceville claiming the Class A (for schools with enrollments of 750 or less) trophy — a beautiful prize that has become one of the most highly-sought schoolboy trophies in the nation. Members of the first "Sweet Sixteen" first included champion Quincy, runner-up Thornton (Harvey), third-place Equality, fourth-place Moline, Champaign, Urbana, Streator, Peoria (H.S.), Springfield, Lawrenceville, Marion, Freeport, Charleston, Centralia, Chicago (Marshall) and Chicago (Lane Tech).

The 16-team field for the last single-class competition included: champion Thornridge, runner-up Oak Lawn, third-place Danville, fourth-place Springfield (Lamphier), Benton, Rockford (Boylan), Quincy (Catholic Boys), Granite City, Chicago (Harlan), Kewanee, Elgin (Larkin), Nashville, Winnetka (New Trier East), Paris, Normal (University High) and Peoria (Woodruff).

First state champion crowned in Champaign was Rockford, coached by Frank Winters, which bounced Springfield, 39-20. First champion in Huff Gym was Coach Holme's Freeport Pretzels, who edged Canton, 24-13. First champion in the Assembly Hall was Chicago (Carver), as Coach Larry Hawkins' Challengers, who took second the year before, beat Centralia, 53-32, on a fantastic shot from the corner at the horn by tiny guard Anthony Smalley.

Only district champion to win the title, after smaller schools were placed into district competition in 1938, was the famous 1932 Hebron team, that boasted the tall and talented Judon twins, Phil and Paul, along with 6-7½" center Bill Schultz. Hebron, a school with an enrollment of only 98, outscored Quincy by a 5-1 margin in overtime to take the championship, 64-59. Other district teams to reach the final game were Bridgewood in 1938 and the gigantic Cobden Appleknockers of 1964. Cobden, with a lineup that included the 6-6½" Neal brothers, Chuck and Jim, and the equally big Sam Cousins, Ken and Jim, lost to the Dave Golden-led Pekin Chinks, 50-45.

Perhaps the greatest game ever in the State Tournament history was the 1945 quarterfinal match between Decatur and Galesburg. Decatur finally captured a 73-72 overtime victory, but only after the score was tied or the lead changed hands an incredible 33 — count 'em — 33 times. One of the most devastating performances by a team in a single game has to be Thornridge's 35-point (104-69) victory over Quincy in the first Class AA title game in 1972. That victory for the Boyd Batts-Quinn Buckner spearheaded Falcons was No. 54 in the school's 58-game state record winning streak.

Among the most memorable individual performances were those by Granite City's Andy Phillip in 1940; Dwight "Dike" Eddleman's single-handed victory for Centralia in 1942; Max Hooper's total of 57 points in back-to-back title games to give Mt. Vernon the 1949 and '50 championships; George Wilson's smooth as silk play at center for Chicago Marshall in 1956, and again in 1959; Collinsville's Bogie Redmon in the Kahoks' 32-0 season that concluded with an 84-50 win over Thornton (Harvey) in 1961; and the all-time tournament scoring performance of 6-9" Dave Robisch of Springfield in 1967.

In 1974, Lawrenceville became the first school since the origination of the two-class system to claim a second title in Class A competition. Coach Ron Fogel's Indians, led by forward Rick Leighty, fought off Ottawa Margate's comeback bid to win 54-53 in what was at the time the closest title game in Class A's brief history.

E. J. Erney is installed

Edward J. Erney was installed as president of Granite City Chapter 1067 of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees during the chapter's December meeting in the Heritage House in St. Louis.

Other officers installed were Lawrence Hengehold, first vice-president; Adrian Copeland, second vice-president; Helen Martin, treasurer, and Frances Hoppe, secretary.

The group discussed proposed changes in the code of living benefit which, if passed, would adversely affect retired federal employees. They also discussed the integration of their benefits with Social Security and its effect on members.

It was agreed to donate $25 to the Quad-City area Tree of Lights campaign of the Salvation Army.

Luncheon was served to 54 members and guests. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chapman, Florence McFarland, Dorothy Brokaw and Clarence Hoppe.

Christmas gifts were exchanged. A prize was awarded by Arvola Close. The next meeting will be Jan. 1979, in the Granite City Township Community Center building.

Troop Five advancements

A court of honor was held by Boy Scout Troop 5, sponsored by Nameoki United Methodist Church. Bob Moske Jr. conducted the opening ceremony and the following scouts were recognized for their advancement: Tenderfoot rank, John Shane, Eric Wofford and Bob McClew. Second Class rank, Chris Roberts, Star rank, Paul Elieff.

Merit badges were presented to Chris Roberts, Mike Ozanich, Ford Frazier, John Shane, Eric Wofford, Bob McClew and Jim Small. First-aid, Caleb Miller, Athletics, David White, Leatherwork, and Chuck Shane, personal management.

Introduction of new members was made by Tom Busch. They are Alan Goode, Rick Hill, Tom Keelin, Norman Kinder, Bob McClew, Mark McClew, Darron Milesap and Chris Roberts.

The program centered around the Northern Wisconsin canoe base, and a film presentation was made by Bob Schrader, scoutmaster of Troop 34, Glen Carbon. He then held a question and answer session with the scouts. Troop 5 is planning a "high adventure" to the canoe base next summer.

Scoutmaster Pat Busch introduced the troop committee, and a review of the troop's activities was given by Charles Shane. The scoutmaster minute was given by Busch, and the scouts led the closing.

Refreshments were served by the Ladies Auxiliary under the direction of Marian Ozanich.

Arrested in hit-run cases

Mary A. Hopkins, 25, Collinsville, has been charged with two counts of leaving the scene of an accident after two cars were struck early this week and her car was abandoned at Spring and Prairie avenues.

At 12:10 a.m. Sunday, Russell Fleming, 1706 Moro Ave., reported a station wagon had just struck his car, parked by his home, and then left the scene.

While police were searching for the car, Philip Burnett, 2813 Saratoga Ave., reported at 12:20 a.m. Sunday that his parked car, in front of his home, had been struck and a light green station wagon with extensive front end damage and flat left front tire had been driven from the scene.

The car was found abandoned and police said pieces left at both accident scenes matched parts missing from the station wagon.

Vocal concert at Grigsby

The public is invited to hear the Vocal Music Department present its annual Christmas concert at Grigsby Junior High School cafeteria, starting at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, Dec. 19.

Soloists will be Rhonda Baker, Christie Connor and Kim Smith.

Providing the accompaniment will be Susan Beasley and Lori Richardson.

A slide presentation will be featured as the Mixed Chorus presents "Night Before Christmas."

The chorus also will perform, "Born Today," "Ring the Bells" and "Jingle Bell Rock."

The Girls Chorus will sing "Winter Wonderland," "Christmas Candle" and "Christmas Lullaby of Joy."

No admission will be charged those attending the Christmas festival of song, Mrs. Barker said.

How to repair ice-damaged evergreens

By WAYNE B. SIEFERT
Area Horticulture Adviser

If the ice storm damaged your evergreens, you can tie them back together and lightly prune to restore the natural shape.

Some pyramidal evergreens look like an over-sized feather duster because ice bowed the limbs or caused some breakage. Some natural repair will occur, but most plants will still be bushy topped by next spring.

Smaller, multi-stemmed trees like pyramidal arbutus and clump junipers can be easily repaired by tying a loop through the limbs and drawing the stems together.

Use a woman's stocking or strip of soft cloth to avoid a sawing-effect on the limbs as the branches sway in the wind. Thread this "rope" through the limbs to conceal your efforts.

Light pruning with hand pruners will complete your repairs.

Larger evergreens may be difficult to tie together because of their size. It may be necessary to tie the tree in two or three locations to restore its natural shape.

If a damaged evergreen has become too large for that location, then last week's storm may help you decide to cut it down and start a small re-landscaping program.

You can prune 20-25 percent off the top of most evergreens and reshape the sides. Single-stemmed evergreens work out best.

Loft-off the top 20-25 percent by cutting close to a small green side branch. If the cut is in the "band" portion, pick a twig that points up.

Hand trim all the side limbs to produce a junior-sized pyramid identical to the original.

If you need more details on "remodeling" of pyramidal evergreens, call your Cooperative Extension Service office and ask for a copy of Circular 1033, "Pruning Evergreens and Deciduous Trees and Shrubs."

Shrubs.

Several units of the Illinois Army National Guard will attend training sessions in Alaska and Germany. Thirty volunteers from the 66th Brigade in Decatur are training at Ft. Greely, Alaska, 120 miles south of Fairbanks, through Dec. 16.

Instruction will include living and surviving in cold climates.

In 1979, four units from various areas of Illinois will attend a 15-day annual training session in the Federal Republic of Germany.

Let's face it, young man. It's tough to get a good job without experience or a college diploma. If you'd like a job interview where you'll really feel needed, see your Army recruiter.

He's got a variety of training courses to choose from... construction, transportation, air defense artillery, you name it. If you're qualified for one of our openings, you'll get it. Guaranteed.

And you'll get paid for it well, too. Today's Army starts you at $14.9 a month. And that's over and above the free meals, free housing, free medical and dental care, and up to 30 days paid vacation each year.

Right now, opportunities are available for both High School and Non-High School grads!

Where does the money go?

Madison County
Extension Adviser
Home Economics

As prices of many items continue to climb, you may find yourself short of money before payday. To cope with this problem, first find out where your money goes.

Finding out where your money goes takes only a few minutes each day. And if you're serious about wanting to cut costs and increase your purchasing power, these guidelines are offered: Carry a small notebook. Every time you spend money, jot down the amount and the kind of item or service paid for.

This way, you can keep track of all expenditures — including small items such as parking meter fees, newspapers, pay telephone calls and refreshments.

By the end of one week, you'll notice that most of your spending falls into certain categories, such as food, automobile and transportation, housing and household operation, clothing, entertainment and recreation, reading and education, gifts and pledges, medical care, and personal needs.

At this point, it will be helpful to draw up a worksheet listing those major expense categories.

Or, you can purchase an account book from an office supply or stationery store.

The account book should contain columnar pages on which you can write the amounts you have spent in each category. You simply total and transfer to the worksheet or account book the amounts you have jotted down daily in your small pocket notebook.

After you record items for a month, where much of your money goes will be obvious.

The record may reveal areas of overspending, such as purchase of items you might easily get along without. You may be surprised to see the total amounts that get away from you in little ways.

The spending record also can point the direction for future day-to-day economies that can accumulate to sizeable savings over several months or a year. You can incorporate these economies into a plan that ensures your income will bring you as much satisfaction as possible. With a plan, you will find it easier to adjust spending habits to keep them in line with available funds.

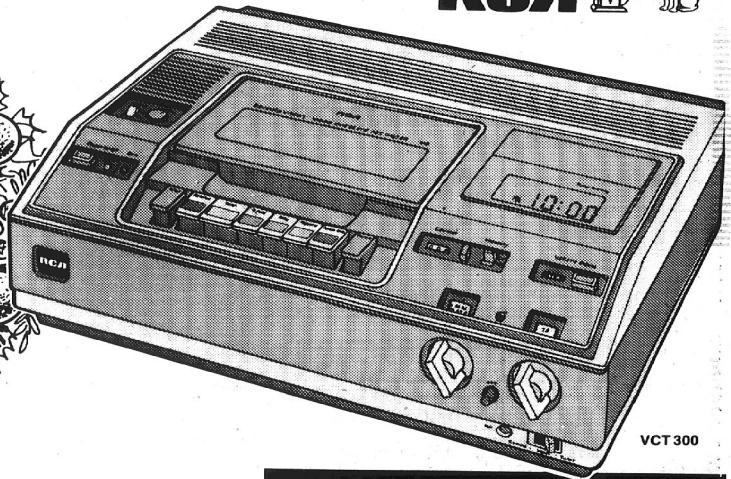

The purpose of making a plan is not only to keep spending within income limits. Its basic purpose is to provide you more satisfaction from whatever amount of income you have.

Some victims of crimes eligible for compensation

If you are the victim of a crime and sustain personal physical injuries, if you were dependent for your support upon a victim who dies as a result of a crime, or if you are related to the victim and you paid for reasonable medical or funeral expenses for that victim, you may be eligible for compensation under the Crime Victims Compensation Act.

The Illinois State Bar Association says the law has two major purposes:

1. To help reduce the financial burden often imposed on innocent persons who are seriously injured by the following violent crimes: murder, voluntary manslaughter, kidnapping, aggravated rape, deviate sexual assault, aggravated arson, arson, indecent liberties with a child, assault, aggravated assault, battery, aggravated battery, heinous battery or reckless conduct.
2. To encourage cooperation with law enforcement agencies by requiring that victims — in order to be eligible for compensation — must have promptly reported the crime to the proper police authorities and must have fully cooperated with law enforcement officials.

Other factors affecting eligibility are requirements that the financial loss is over two hundred dollars, that the victim and the criminal were not related and sharing the same household, and that the injury to — or the death of — the victim was not attributable to the wrongful conduct or provocation of the victim.

If you are found eligible, compensation may include medical and hospital expenses, loss of earnings up to five hundred dollars per month, funeral expenses and loss of support.

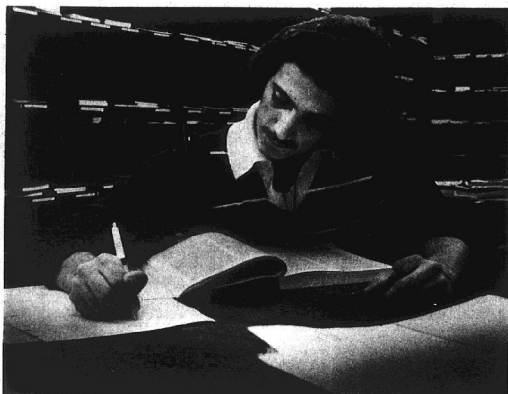

There is no recovery for property loss or damage, or for pain and suffering. Recovery amounts may be affected by compensation the victim receives from other sources, and in any event may not exceed ten thousand dollars.

Proper filing of your claim is important. Within six months of the date of injury, you must file a Notice of Intent to File a Claim with the attorney general's office. These forms are available from the Illinois attorney general's office. Next, after the attorney general has received your notice, an application for compensation will be sent to you.

You then have two years from the date of injury to return this application for compensation to the Illinois Court of Claims in Springfield, Ill. Your claim will be investigated by the attorney general's office, and a report sent to the court.

The final step will be a hearing at which you may appear with or without counsel and present witnesses. The court's decision will be mailed to you.

The law provides that claims will be investigated and determined, regardless of whether the criminal is known, regardless whether any arrests have been made, and regardless of whether a suspect was found guilty or not guilty.

HITTING THE BOOKS. Steve Vitale of Granite City studies a course assignment in Lovejoy Library on the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville campus. Vitale is a junior at SIUE majoring in mass communication.

'Story of Christmas' at Lake View Gardens

Lake View Memorial Gardens at Fairview Heights will present the annual display, "The Story of Christmas," beginning Dec. 16. The display is noted for its naturalness in recreating the setting of the plains. In the field, the Three Wise Men, the Shepherds in the field, the Three Wise Men, the Bethlehem scene and Herod's court with the resultant flight into Egypt. Whereas other displays feature bright lights, an effort is made at Lake View to eliminate bright lights in order to recapture the effect of the natural star brightness of that holy night, a spokesman said.

Throughout the years, thousands of families have made this reliving of that first Christmas as a part of their attempt to recapture the holiness and inspiration of that old, old story that is ever new and inspiring, he noted.

There are nine different scenes beginning with the Angels announcing the coming of a Savior, Joseph and Mary being turned away by the innkeeper, the Angel bringing glad tidings of great joy to the shepherds watching their flocks on the hillside, the star over the manger in the city of Bethlehem, the Three Wise Men following that star on their camels, the choraleers at the little chapel of the Gardens, Herod's court as he orders his soldiers to take the life of the Christ Child and the flight into Egypt as Joseph takes Mary and the Baby to escape Herod's wrath.

The display will be lighted each evening through Jan. 1 from 5 to 10:30 p.m. Lake View Memorial Gardens is located on Highway 159 one mile south of St. Clair Square in Fairview Heights.

Warrant alleges 1973 desertion from U.S. Army

Michael A. Brice, 26, of 3612 Kirkpatrick Homes, was arrested at 7:30 p.m. Friday on a warrant from the U.S. Army, alleging he deserted the army in May of 1973.

Officers were putting a parking ticket on his car at Kirkpatrick Homes when Brice came out to inquire about the ticket. Police alleged he became abusive in his language.

A routine check of the vehicle and owner was run and the check indicated the warrant had been on file for Brice's arrest more than five years. He was held for military authorities, who picked him up at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Arrest youth in stolen truck

Edward J. Hornberger, 17, East Alton, a former Briarhaven Drive resident, was arrested by St. Louis County police Saturday, allegedly driving a pickup truck stolen from Granite City.

Jerry Farris, Rural Route One, Box 1366, Granite City, told police he was visiting friends overnight in the 3200 block of Maryville Road when he discovered the truck and its keys missing. He believes someone entered the apartment through an unlocked door and removed his keys between 1 and 10 a.m. Saturday.

St. Louis County authorities Sunday said the truck had been involved in an auto accident and the driver had been arrested. They said Hornberger was being charged there with vehicle theft and drunkenness and will be held for Granite City authorities.

Seek views on state human services plan

The Illinois Department of Public Aid is accepting public comments on its fiscal year 1979 human services plan through Dec. 28.

Public Aid Director Arthur Quern said, "Since Nov. 6, when we first announced the comment period, we have received very few written comments from interested citizens. I hope more persons will take the time to read the human services plan and send their comment to us."

Phase I of the plan contains program and fiscal information. Phase II analyzes the Welfare Reform Demonstration Project — a pilot program in operation in Cook, Franklin, Jackson, Jefferson, Kane, Macou, Marion and Williamson counties.

The demonstration project, conducted jointly by the Illinois Department of Public Aid and the Governor's Office of Manpower and Human Development, is funded by a CETA (Comprehensive Education and Training Act) grant obtained through the Manpower-Human Development office.

The pilot project utilizes specially-trained public aid staff members who screen public aid applicants and clients in the project sites for employability.

Clients with potential for employment are assessed and referred to appropriate employment or training programs.

The area of employment assistance, examined through the Welfare Reform Demonstration Project, has been identified by Governor James R. Thompson as a top priority. The project addresses unemployment, a major state issue.

The public review and comment period on the Human Services Plan is conducted in accordance with Section 7(a) of Public Law 79-1035, Welfare and Rehabilitation Services Act. Public comments are welcomed. All comments received will be reviewed by a planning and program development team.

Any major changes brought about due to public comments will be described in an additional plan amendment.

Copies of Phase I and Phase II of the plan are available for review by contacting the Department of Public Aid either by telephone or in writing at the office listed below:

Illinois Department of Public Aid, Planning and Program Development, Section 318, 2nd St., Springfield, Ill. 62762. (217) 785-0754.

Youth faces four charges

Daniel Portell, 18, of 3500 Johnson Road, was arrested at 11 p.m. Friday and was charged with assault, resisting arrest and theft. Police first were called to the Corner Liquor Store, 2526 Nameoki Road, and were told that a shoplifter was caught with a $1 can of peanuts, but left in a green pickup truck with two friends before police arrived.

Officers located a truck matching that description and stopped it at East 25th and Kate streets. Portell, a passenger, was placed in a squad car and was returned to the liquor store. The peanuts also were recovered.

Police alleged he tried to kick the inside of the squad car window so they removed him from the car and handcuffed him. He allegedly refused to get back into the car and force had to be used, police said.

They also alleged he threatened policemen and refused to cooperate when they took him to the police station. At the booking window, he allegedly started to wrestle with officers and force again had to be used to place him in a cell, police said.

He was released at 10:15 a.m. Saturday on $105 cash bond.

Secretaries hold Christmas party

The committee included Priscilla Veach, chairman, Candy Kawiya, Dorothy Larnier, Catherine Wiltz, and Judy Ashley.

The evening began with a happy hour at 6:30, followed by a smorgasbord. Following the dinner there were games, vocal entertainment by Sonja Chanesian, and a gift exchange.

To close the evening's activities, prizes were awarded the members.

CHRYSLER CUTBACK

Chrysler Corp. is reducing production and ordering January layoffs at three of its five U.S. assembly plants. St. Louis, Hamtramck, Mich., and Newark, Del., being a downturn in auto sales, Chrysler said 1,200 jobs will be eliminated at Hamtramck.

SANTA'S WORKSHOP is the theme used by Mrs. Sharon Sedlacek's second-grade class to decorate the entrance to their room at Frohardt School. Santa is portrayed reading letters from children around the world, helped by one of his elves. The doorway has been bordered in red, and dolls and other toys have been placed on the floor outside the room. Each of the grades in the school has decorated its doors and has suspended pieces of Christmas artwork from the hall ceilings. (Press-Record Photo)

Schools open to public use

Granite City Schools are open to the public after school hours and during vacation periods, but the schools could be used more extensively by local agencies if requests were made to the Board of Education, school officials said.

The schools have cooperated year around with the Granite City Park Board since 1955 when the Park Board proposed a year-round recreational program by allowing the Park District to use school facilities for Park activities. This use was allowed without rental charges. The Park District reciprocated with similar arrangements for school activities, a spokesman noted.

The Granite City Schools also are used by local organizations other than the Park District. Each elementary school in the district is used several evenings a week after school hours by Boy and Girl Scout groups.

In addition, the YMCA, Mitchell Athletic Club, church groups and many civic and fraternal organizations use school facilities for their activities.

Such activities include lecture type programs, club meetings, worship services, school related PTA activities, children's Christmas parties, Day Camp, fund-raising programs, musical and dramatic productions, polling places for public elections and numerous recreational activities.

The High Schools are used by Belleville Area College extensively to make college courses available to local residents.

Although schools are designed primarily for the educational development of the students, it has been the policy of the Granite City School Board to allow the use of the schools facilities by the community, an official said. As a general rule, charges are made for costs incurred by the district and at times, a minimal rental fee is charged.

Patrick to reveal candidacy decision

Whether or not Donald D. Patrick will run for the office of village president of Pontoon Beach will be disclosed Tuesday, Jan. 2 at 8:30 p.m., at a cheese and wine party, it was announced by Charlie Polley, co-chairman of the "Patrick for Progress in Pontoon Beach" committee.

The committee is a group of citizens who are encouraging a ticket to be headed by Patrick for president of the village board in the April village election. Location of the event will be announced later.

Patrick has told the group that he would study the situation but has not committed himself as a candidate.

"The work of the committee has been coming along with progress," said Polley. "We presented Patrick with 150 petitions with over 150 signatures of Pontoon Beach residents who want him to run for village president, people that agreed that the village government needs change, leadership, and progress."

"We also have approached several people to run with him, Polley said. They are people that Patrick recommended, and they all have said that they are interested in running if Don decides to run. We have been looking for people that possess professional ethics and management experience and abilities."

"For the office of village clerk, we have talked with Irene Karlechik, 4118 Lake Drive. She served as secretary of Stallings Grade School from 1955 to 1977, and as secretary of the Long Lake Fire Protection District since 1975. She also is serving currently as secretary of Service Employees International Local Union 253, a position she acquired in 1970. She also served from 1955 to 1961 as president of the Stallings School Parent-

Teachers Association and served in other capacities. "For village trustees, we have talked to Dean 'Doc' Rochester, 27 Westgate Drive, a professor at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville who serves as chairman of the counseling education department. He served as village trustee from 1968 to 1976, and served as chairman of the police committee and was a member of the finance and budget committees. He always has been known for his honest and independent opinions."

"We also have talked with David L. Johnson, 3803 Lake St., a machinist at Granite City Steel. Dave has served as secretary of a local fire department and chaired various committees for the department. He also has been active in the Lake School Parent-Teachers Association, serving as treasurer from 1975 to 1977 and as president 1977 to 1978. Dave also is a member of Steelworkers Union Local 30.

Richard G. McIntosh, 6 Pontaineau Drive, is being considered as the third trustee to complete the ticket. He has had a long career in law enforcement as a Madison County sheriff's deputy from 1970 to 1975. While with the sheriff's department, Rich was a sergeant and in the detective division.

"He also was a patrolman and juvenile officer with the Pontoon Beach Police Department from 1975 to 1978. Rich is now employed with L. J. Ross, Inc. Rich also served as a director with the Madison County Police Association and as president of a local civic organization in 1977-78. During his year as president the club received many distinguished honors in the southern Illinois area. Rich also has chaired various committees in that organization.

"It has been the organizing of such qualified people by the committee that has taken time for Patrick to make an announcement. When we first approached Don to run, he said he didn't just want a group of names put on a ticket, but people who have been involved in the community and had management experience and abilities.

"The committee believes that with this group of people willing to run, and the signing of the petitions, we have convinced Patrick to run. Don told us he will have an answer on January 2. "These people have said they are willing to run, but nothing has been confirmed or finalized as yet," Polley concluded.

116,000 work for state government

Comptroller Michael J. Bakalis has just released statistics of payroll warrants issued to state employees for work performed in October 1978. There were 116,626 employees of all state agencies in October, an increase of 2,086, or 1.8 percent, as compared to September.

Exclusive of educational institutions, the October total was 77,171. This is an increase of 346, or .5 percent, from the September figure.

Changes by major groups were: Constitutional officers and courts down 12, or .1 percent. Code departments up 443, or .7 percent.

Major commissions down

29, or .7 percent. Miscellaneous agencies down 56, or .26 percent.

Payrolls for all agencies totaled $132,890,197, a decrease of $1,120,447, or .8 percent, from September. Payroll for all agencies except educational institutions was $92,556,593, an increase of $465,584, or .5 percent.

The number of employees in October 1978 was 1,321 less than in October, 1977.

Educational institutions decreased by 2,069. All other agencies increased by 1,348. Total payroll costs for all state agencies increased by $10,886,580, or up 8.9 percent, from October 1977 to October 1978.

Burlington, Mass.; three sons, Charles and William Robinson, both of Belleville, and Paul D. Robinson of Freeburg, Ill.; two brothers, George Charlton of Highland and William Charlton of Troy; three sisters, Mrs. Herb (Ruby) Jones of Carlyle, Mrs. Carl (Sylvia) Edwards of Highland and Mrs. Teller. Burial was at Valhalla Cemetery, Belleville.

Conservative trend may be permanent

By RICHARD L. LESHNER President, U.S.

Chamber of Commerce
Quite often, as I travel and speak around the country, people ask about the growing conservative mood and how long it will last.

My answer has been that we are witnessing a permanent shift from the ideas born in the 1930s and still with us that the federal government in Washington can solve all of our problems with tax dollars.

In my mind, this shift will be a dominant political factor as long as Americans live in frustration and anguish over (1) high rates of inflation and (2) high rates of taxation. And that promises to continue for some time.

Neither of these problems has ever been so difficult or prolonged for us in peacetime. And now in the 1970s, they seem to have come together with devastating effects for millions of Americans. People want change.

While making no claims for political clairvoyance, especially since not even the professional pollsters are making them, I am pleased to note that results of the recent midterm elections offer the strongest evidence yet of the public trend toward restraint in government support of political candidates pledged to reduce government spending, taxes and deficits.

Though the number of seats won or lost by the two major parties may not convey it, the gain in conservative candidates of both parties elected to office is impressive and widely recognized.

In the U.S. Senate races, perhaps the best barometer of the public mood — because candidates tend to run more on the issues and receive greater publicity — five incumbent liberals were defeated by Republicans, and in three instances will be replaced by current House members with established voting records in Congress for taking a conservative and oftentimes business viewpoint on legislation.

From a group of 20 new Senate members, a conservative gain of four seems assured. In a body that will be split 59-41, by party, one or two votes can be crucial.

In the House, where political philosophy may not come as forcefully into play, as say, incumbency (only 5 percent of all House members seeking re-election lost), the shift is harder to measure.

The large new freshman class of '77 is noteworthy in itself. Our legislative specialists foresee a conservative gain of 16 seats.

But the lineup of new members does not tell the full story. Many of the successful 388 House incumbents and 10 Senate incumbents, duly impressed with the voters' moods, will return to their Washington desks with campaign rhetoric still ringing in their ears.

If the predictions bear up, we should see a somewhat more conservative Congress inclined to help President Carter in his effort to combat inflation by cutbacks in spending and onerous regulations.

Sparked by Proposition 13, the California smash hit with taxpayers, the national taxpayers revolt proved itself no dud.

Voters in many states approved ballot measures to reduce taxes or government spending or both.

Liberals are not very happy over the election results. They are complaining about fat defense budgets, single-issue voters and likely cuts in the next federal budget. They blame chiefly the middle-class taxpayers, who after years of generosity are accused of turning their back on the poor.

The fastest-growing programs in the federal budget in recent years have been those providing direct payment to individuals from the U.S. Treasury — income transfer payments such as Social Security benefits, Medicare, welfare and food stamps.

Taxpayers have been most generous. It is unfair and totally wrong to accuse them of turning against social programs, simply because they not express a strong desire for reasonable controls on spending in a period of grossly inflated costs.

"Keep them happy"

By PAT FOLEY
Press-Record Staff Writer

Have you ever had to serve 10,000 hamburgers or 400 gallons of canned vegetables in a week? Have you ever had to feed nearly 7,000 people each day? How about heading a staff of 200 workers spread out at 21 different locations?

These are just some of the responsibilities of the director of food services for Granite City School District 9, O. L. "Obie" Overhuler.

Obie, as he is known throughout the school district and community, is the number one person when it comes to feeding the children at the 21 cafeterias within the district.

He started his association with food services during his 24 years with the military. After serving four years in the Navy, Obie joined the U.S. Army where he taught food preparation.

He taught GI's the proper way to prepare food for the forces at the many military installations throughout the world, having been assigned various duties including three tours at the local Granite City Army Depot when it was a primary depot for Army equipment.

Originally from Keokuk, Iowa, Overhuler took a liking to the Quad-City area and its people, being stationed here three times, and decided to make his home here upon his retirement from military service.

He has been with the school district for the past six years and his presence has changed many of the policies and daily routines in the office of the director of food services.

Being in charge of the food services department, with an annual budget of more than $1,300,000, has been a great challenge to Overhuler since being hired by the Board of Education.

One of the more apparent changes is some of the types of food being served at the schools.

He believes that serving food that the children do not like results only in the food going into the garbage. The children who do not like the particular food served on any given day then have nothing else to eat.

So he tries to order and serve the types of menus that will please the majority of the children most of the time. Of course there are many commodities that the school district receives from the government that have to be used, which he cannot control. But he tries to spread these out over a long period.

There are 102 employees that Overhuler is directly responsible. These do not include his two secretaries. Also, there are 48 substitutes who have to be contacted systematically when a regular worker is unable to be at work or extra help is needed in a particular cafeteria because of an unusually high plate count.

The person responsible for calling the substitutes and finding someone home or who is willing to work is Dorothy Lerner. Mrs. Lerner also is responsible for the payroll for all of the cafeteria workers, in addition to paying the monthly bills which normally amount to $70,000 to $80,000 each month.

Mrs. Lerner also does the profit-loss bookkeeping and the monthly reports to the state for reimbursements to the school district, which ranges from $55,000 to $65,000 per month.

Each day a plate count is taken at each cafeteria and money also is collected for lunches. This bookkeeping and counting of money is done by Overhuler's other "right-hand-man" Judy Ashley.

She keeps track of the daily plate count and the number of reduced price and free lunches that are served so the state reimbursements may be tabulated.

She also is responsible for the paperwork involved in keeping a milk count and for ordering the proper supplies.

Storage of supplies is another problem that Overhuler has overcome, but it took him almost five years to accomplish it.

He is responsible, along with the warehousemen, for the addition of a walk-in cooler (refrigerator) and walk-in freezer at the district's warehouse. Before these facilities were installed, all of the commodities that required freezer or cooler storage were stored at cold storage facility in East St. Louis.

Not only does the district-owned cooler and freezer save storage fees, it also makes getting an item much easier and quicker than a drive to East St. Louis.

The rotation of stock in the warehouse also is important in the smooth-running operation that Overhuler heads. He and the warehousemen have made the rotation an important and integral part of the food services system.

Items that are not supplied by the government have to be bought directly from wholesale suppliers and this requires bidding on any order over $150.

Overhuler can make purchases up to this limit but says that he doesn't have to use this built-in privilege very often.

Among the many items that have to be bought by the school district by bid are: crackers, canned vegetables by the case lot, canned fruit, pork and beans, meat, napkins, straws, ready-made hamburger patties, fresh vegetables and potatoes.

The Board of Education makes the final decision on the purchases and many times will pick one supplier over another because of just a half-cent or penny difference in unit prices. When buying for 21 cafeterias, even a penny an item can run up to many dollars over a year's time.

This doesn't mean that quality is not taken into consideration. Many times Overhuler goes to the store that may have submitted a slightly higher bid but through it may have submitted a slightly higher bid but has specified a better or higher quality product.

By this kind of knowledgeable buying and getting the school district's food services out of the "red", Overhuler has helped this community by serving good food for lower than average prices.

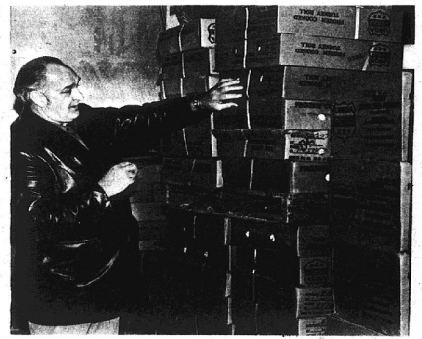

Another function of the food services department is the planning and serving of groups at various evening functions using the school district's cafeteria facilities which require buffet serving or speciality dishes.

This not only requires special ordering but also having workers stay for overtime work. Payment for these services are worked out ahead of time and usually is based on a per-person amount.

But still the most important point that Overhuler stresses frequently and keeps in the back of his mind each day is to "keep them happy."

At right . . . Commodities in the district's warehouse freezer are checked by Overhuler as some of the items shown will be used for the upcoming Christmas lunch scheduled for Dec. 21. Stock in the warehouse cooler is checked regularly.

At left . . . Bids approved by the School Board at a recent meeting are checked against purchase orders which is a common chore in the director's office. Overhuler also is responsible for the compilation of the monthly menus for both the elementary and junior and senior high schools. These are done at least three weeks in advance to allow for late shipments and unavailable goods.

Miss Crawford weds James Anthony Anson

Miss Katherine Ann Crawford of Granite City and James Anthony Anson of St. Peters, Mo., exchanged wedding vows in a candlelight ceremony on Oct. 28 at the First United Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. David Bruce Maxton officiated at the double ring ceremony at 7:30 in the evening.

Parents of the bride are Mrs. Lillian Crawford of Granite City, and the late Wayne Crawford. The groom is a son of Benjamin Anson of Council Bluffs, Iowa, and the late Mrs. Rita Anson.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Robert W. Crawford, the bride wore her aunt, Mrs. Van Stuart's, wedding gown fashioned in an ivory slipper satin.

Long tapered sleeves were set into the fitted bodice featuring a wide lace collar. Matching lace enhanced the cathedral length gathered skirt at the lowered waistline creating a peplum effect.

She wore a melody length veil of bridal illusion attached to a headpiece of baby's breath and silk flowers and she carried an

Attending the serving table were Mrs. Louis Ware, Mrs. Judy Rue, and Mrs. Faye Hester.

A holiday theme was carried out in the table decorations, in green, red, and white. Place cards for each staff member were attached to packages of Christmas cookies wrapped in plastic wrap and tied with red and green ribbons.

Those in attendance were Edward Gonwa, principal, Mrs. Phyllis Pickrel, school secretary, Mrs. Nancy Matthews, social worker, Mrs. Nancy Graf, school nurse, Mrs. Lena Scher and Mrs. Edith Feltmeyer, cafeteria workers, Joe Hordesky and Leonard Reeves, custodians, and Mrs. Paula Hagnauer, Mrs. Wanda Hubble, and Bob O'Neil, teacher aides.

Teachers included Mrs. Loubele Clemans, Mrs. Inabel Hudgins, Mrs. Dorothy Dickerson, Mrs. Linda Irwin, Mrs. Jean Zotti, Mrs. Phyllis Wiggins, Mrs. Ellie Bonatt, Mrs. Sue Grable, Mrs. Linda Walmsey, Robert Kozielek, James Noeth, Mrs. Betty Yarborough, Mrs. Helen Schaeffer, Miss Janis Melchior, Also Mrs. Mary Lou, Hudson, Mrs. Judy Conover, Mrs. Joan Shaffner, Mrs. Stacey Granger, Mrs. Ann Hildebrand, Stanley Serwena, Sterling Shoen, Dan Rahn, and Miss Carla Ziff.

ENGAGED. Miss Laura Ann Haskins, the fiancée of Steve Hunt. Their engagement is being announced by the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl (Lou Anne) Haskins, 4734 Lake Drive.

Hunt-Haskins engagement told

The betrothal of Miss Laura Ann Haskins and Steve Hunt is being announced this week by Mr. and Mrs. Carl (Lou Anne) Haskins, 4734 Lake Drive, North.

Miss Haskins is a student at Granite City High School.

Her fiancé graduated from McCluer High School, St. Louis, and attended Florissant Valley Junior College. He resides in Pontoon Beach and is employed as a printer at the Dupli-Print firm in Madison.

Placement tests set at Assumption High

The High School Placement Test for Assumption High School is scheduled Saturday, Jan. 6. Students are to be at the school by 8:15 a.m. so that the testing procedures can begin promptly at 8:30 a.m.

The test will end at approximately 12:30 p.m. There is a testing fee of $4 which is to be paid at the time of the test, according to Mary Ann Boonch.

The test will be administered at Assumption, 950 Kingshighway, East St. Louis, for the benefit of the eighth-grade boys and girls who are considering attending the school in the fall of '79. This test, along with elementary school records and teachers' recommendations, is used to place students into their needs and abilities.

Eighth-grade students who wish to take the placement test should notify their elementary school principals or call Assumption at 397-2796, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Students must be registered in advance for this test, she added.

Church of God scene of Baker-Schrieber nuptials

Miss Frances Jane Schrieber, a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Max H. Schrieber, 2109 Missouri Ave., became the bride of Marine Corporal Donald Lee Baker Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lee Baker Sr., 8604 Washington Park Blvd., Caseyville, on Nov. 24, at the Church of God, 1536 Fourth St., Madison.

The Rev. Carl O'Guinn performed a double ring ceremony at 7:30 in the evening in a candlelight setting.

Organist Mrs. Carl O'Guinn accompanied the soloist, Alice Schrieber, a sister-in-law of the bride, as she sang, "We've Only Just Begun" and "You Light Up My Life."

Serving as candlelighters were Judy Schrieber and Tammy Baker, sisters of the bride and groom, respectively. Lila Moslander attended the guest book at a reception given in the church hall immediately following the ceremony.

Her melody length veil of illusion was held in place by a pearly headpiece and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and red roses tied with white streamers.

Mrs. Martha Morgan, a sister of the bride, was honor attendant. She was given in a burgundy organza floor length dress featuring a lace trim on the collar and cuffs and a self fabric ruffle at the hemline.

She held a nosegay bouquet of pink carnations mingled with greenery, festooned with pink streamers.

Rebecca Schrieber, a niece of the bride, and Shawna Martin, served as the flower girl and ringbearer.

Cleatus Jones attended the groom as best man.

A 1976 graduate of South High School, the bride was formerly employed at the First Granite City Savings and Loan. The groom attended Assumption High School and is presently serving with the U.S. Marine Corps at Camp LeJeune, N.C.

The newlywed couple are residing at Camp LeJeune.

Mrs. Partney marks birthday

Mrs. Ruth Partney was presented with a decorated cake and gift by members of the Bank of America in observance of her birthday at a meeting held last week.

Hosting the session was May Ebling. Plans were also discussed to host the club Christmas party today.

Those excelling in games and winning prizes were Helen Lipchik, Dorothy Barnett, Angie Buehler, the hostess and Mrs. Partney. Refreshments were served to those named and to Julia Portell, Rose Druhe and Leona Delaloye.

A few tips on holiday spirits

By MARY RICHARDS
Illinois Department of Public Health
The holidays are a festive time of the year, and part of many celebrations is the traditional eggnog or other alcoholic beverage with which many of us toast the old and new years.

Unfortunately, many people tend to overdo the holiday spirits, and tragedy is often the result.

Medically, alcohol is a drug which depresses your central nervous system as a general anesthetic and slows the activity of your brain and spinal cord.

Your body does not digest alcohol as it does food. The alcohol you drink is absorbed directly from your stomach and intestines into your bloodstream. This absorption takes place rapidly, especially if your stomach is empty.

What often happens, then, is that people who have had a few "cups of cheer" will drive.

Even the "social drinker," who thinks she or he is all right and not affected by the alcohol, is dangerous behind the wheel. That person is, after all, driving while the central nervous system is depressed and brain activity is slowed down.

The "problem drinker," who has a record of arrests for offenses involving alcohol, is an even bigger problem. This type of driver is responsible for two-thirds of the fatalities involving alcohol.

All 50 states, plus the District of Columbia, have laws against driving while under the influence of alcohol.

In most states, whether you are "under the influence" is determined by your blood alcohol concentration (BAC).

In all but two states, you are presumed to be intoxicated if your BAC is .10 percent higher. In Utah and Idaho, it's .08 percent.

If you drive while your BAC is .10 percent, your chances of having an accident are seven times higher than when you are sober. If it rises to .15 percent, you are 25 times more likely to have an accident.

How much alcohol concentration is there in one drink? For a person who weighs 150 pounds: 12 ounces of regular beer, .02 percent
BAC; three ounces of wine,
.02 percent; one ounce hard liquor, .02 percent; one three and a half ounce martini or manhattan, .04 percent BAC; one four-ounce old-fashioned, daiquiri or alexander, .05 percent; and an eight-ounce highball, .03 percent.

If you weigh less than 150 pounds, your BAC will be proportionately higher; if you weigh more than 150 pounds, it will be lower.

Your BAC will drop about
.01 percent per hour if you don't have any more drinks.
So, if you weigh 150 pounds, and you drink five beers in one hour on an empty stomach, your BAC will be .10 percent. It will take three more hours for it to drop below .05 percent, the non-dangerous level.

Time is the only effective remedy for an elevated BAC.
Cold showers, fresh air, black coffee, exercise and other famous "remedies" have no effect on your blood alcohol content.

If you know you're going to be driving, don't drink.
However, if you insist on drinking before driving, here are some tips:

(1) Eat first — have something in your stomach to slow down the rate of absorption; (2) drink slowly space your drinks to give your body time to handle them; (3) know what you're drinking.

(4) Set a limit on the number of drinks you will have, and stick to it; (5) stop drinking in time to give your body a chance to reduce your BAC to a safe level before you drive; and (6) be honest with yourself — if you know you're drunk enough to raise your BAC over .05 percent, don't drive.

The state health department hopes you will all follow this advice when indulging in holiday drinking, so that you will still
are over.

Dance Friday for GCHS students

A dance for students of both high schools will be held in the South cafeteria
Friday, Dec. 15 from 8 to 10 p.m.

The program will follow a western theme and the admission price will be reduced 50 cents for each person wearing a western hat.

"Burgundy" will play at the dance.
Admission price will be $.50.

Sign language course

Sign language for the deaf will be offered by the Speech and Hearing Department of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville again this winter quarter on a non-credit basis.

The instructor is Mary Lou Hudson, Granite City, who is married to a deaf husband and has taught sign language at the YMCA and at SIUE. Mrs. Hudson is certified as an interpreter for the deaf by the National Registry of Interpreters and is a member of Sign Interpreters Guidance Network (SIGN). She spent the past summer at Gallaudet College for the Deaf, Washington, D. C., concentrating on teaching sign language.

The classes will emphasize both expressive and receptive sign language. Deaf heritage and culture, as well as comparisons of various sign systems will be included. Video tapes from Gallaudet College will supplement instruction.

Beginning 1 Sign Language will meet for eight weeks on Monday nights beginning Jan. 8 at 6:15 p.m.

Beginning 2 Sign Language for those with some skills will meet for eight weeks at 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. beginning Monday, Jan. 8.

Arrangements for an intermediate class will be made if there is sufficient demand for the course.

To enroll, Quad-Citizens may send a $15 enrollment fee check to SIUE Speech and Hearing Dept., Edwardsville, Ill., Attn.: Dr. Joyce Taylor, by Jan. 4. A $6 textbook will be available for purchase at the first class meeting, Mrs. Hudson added.

2 BROKER COURSES
Evening courses for area residents who are interested in qualifying for the Illinois real estate broker licensing exam are set to begin Jan. 4 at Howard Johnson's, Rt. 157 and Interstate 55-70, Collinsville. Financing and appraisal 15-hour courses have been approved toward fulfilling the 90-hour course requirement for taking the broker examination.

Insulation tax credit

Homeowners and renters who have made energy-saving home improvements are eligible for a tax credit of up to $300 under the new National Energy Tax Act, Larry Lappin, Madison County Extension home energy adviser, is reminding the public.

The $300 credit represents a 15 percent allowance on the first $2,000 spent on such improvements. It is available to those who have taken home energy conservation measures from April 20, 1977, through Dec. 31, 1985.

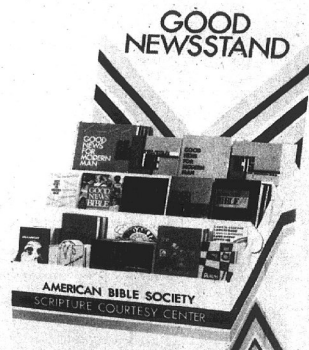

Condominiums and cooperatives are included in the credit, Lappin says, if used as a principal residence. Vacation homes are not included.

Also available for a non-refundable credit are investments in solar, wind and other renewable energy sources. This credit is 30 percent of the first $2,000 and 20 percent of the next $8,000 spent, for a maximum of $2,000. Any investment from April 20, 1977, through Dec. 31, 1985 will qualify if the equipment is used to heat or cool a home or to provide hot water.

Lappin says persons preparing 1978 tax returns and having questions about the tax credit should call their Internal Revenue Service office. He also encourages those interested in taking advantage of the credit to go to the Extension office for insulation and weatherstripping information from the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Service and Illinois Institute of Natural Resources.

SPEECH HONORS earned by Granite City High School North students in the O'Fallon High School Speech Tournament during the weekend are, from left: Bob Slate, fourth place in oratorical declamation, Mark Kastelic, first place in original oratory and third place in extemporaneous speaking, and Mark Belleville, second place in humorous interpretation.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY Scripture courtesy center located in the office of the Madison County Baptist Association, 620 Engineer Road, south of Interstate 270 at Mitchell. The non-profit center offers Bibles, large print Scriptures, activity and coloring books as well as colorful Scripture selections. The center is open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. each Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Students paying bigger share at state universities in Illinois

Each student's share of operating costs at the state universities in Illinois has almost doubled in the last eight years. This is one of the findings in a special look at higher education — now the state's third largest spending program — in a fiscal report released by Comptroller Michael J. Bakalis.

The report focuses on major trends and changes in higher education since fiscal year 1970 when the state's first income tax was being ushered into existence.

Highlights follow:
Students contributed about seven percent of the universities' operating costs in FY 1970, but the figure has risen to almost 13 percent in the current fiscal year.

Operating appropriations for the universities have fallen behind the Cost of Living index, and purchasing power per student has dropped almost $478 per student since 1970.

The community colleges are the biggest losers in the appropriation crunch with inflation, and the community campuses are gaining enrollments, while the state universities are showing declines.

Enrollment projections look for a peak in 1981, with declines through 1990, when student headcounts may be about 44,000 less than in 1977.

The ratio of higher education faculty to administrators is now almost one administrator to every two faculty members.

On another topic, the state's general revenue

The available balance in the general revenue outlook continues to show steady gains.

The available balance in the general funds was $211 million on Oct. 31, $108 million more than the same date one year ago.

State spending in the first four months of the 1978-79 fiscal year is up 5.6 percent from July-October 1977.

Marshall PTA to view play

Sixth grade pupils at Marshall Elementary School will present a Christmas play, entitled "The Guest," at the Parent-Teacher Association meeting, set Tuesday, Dec. 19, at 7:30 p.m. at the school.

Portraying the various characters in the play are: Mother, Carla Nicol; Father, Leon Ulley; Penny, Deanna Harline; Annette, Marie Bristol; Grandmother, Jodi Stagner; and the Burglar, David Young.

The dancers will include Angie Bugg and Teri Padgett, mannequins, and Michelle Staggs, Robbie Thomas, Ted Walker, Cathy Webb, Paula Wyatt and Dawn Reid.

Performing the caroling sequences will be: Julie Blackwood, Leah Chinchock, Paul Clark, Rodney Clark, Connie Ellisworth, Tammy Flaugh, Patrick Hurcoy, Anita Jackson, Doug Jackson, Christine James, Yvonda Johnson, Jill Padgett, Frances Reed, Debbie Rozycki, Carolyn Smith, Susan Stephens, Michelle Staggs, Robbie Thomas, Ted Walker, Cathy Webb, Paula Wyatt and Dawn Reid.

The play is under the direction of Mrs. Judy Collins, Ron Keeton, Mike Loftus, Don Luddecke, Mrs. Pat Michaeloff and Mrs. Mary Ann Moore.
